

INDEX

- Advertising, of online catalogs, 80
"ALA Policy on Confidentiality of Library Records," 120-21
- Architectural Barriers Act of 1968, 102
- Artwork for instructional brochures, 111
- Association of Research Libraries (ARL) SPEC Kit on Automation and Reorganization of Technical and Public Services, 32
- Association of Research Libraries (ARL) SPEC Kit on Staff Training for Automation, 37-38
- Automated library systems: consortia, 50-51; equipment choices, 56; location of equipment, 51. See also Office automation; Online catalogs; Planning process for automated library systems
- Automation and Reorganization of Technical and Public Services. See* Association of Research Libraries (ARL) SPEC Kit on Automation and Reorganization of Technical and Public Services
- Automation/Systems Librarian, job description for, 79. See also Job classifications, for personnel in library automation
- Bibliographic instruction, for online catalogs, 87
- Boolean logic, and online catalogs, 80, 81
- Boredom, and automated systems, 61, 62
- Brochures. See Instructional brochures for online catalogs
- Card catalog, use, v. online catalog, 89-90
- Chairs: adjustability, 21-22; and back support, 21-23; height, 20, 21-22; relationship to desk and keyboard, 20, 22-24; at video display terminal workstations, 21-24
- Champaign Public Library and Information Center: implementation of automated system, 65-68; staff turnover, 72-73
- Children and online catalogs. See Online catalogs for children and youth
- Circulation systems, automated, 62
- Closet cyberphobes, 12
- COM catalogs, as backup to online catalogs, 89
- Committees: See Task forces
- Computer skills for librarians, 36-37
- Computerphobia, 12
- Confidentiality of library records. See Privacy, legal aspects
- Consortia: for automated library systems, 50-51; evaluation teams, 53; and staff time, 69-70; and team building, 53
- Continuing education. See Training
- Contract negotiation, with automated system vendors, 54
- Council on Library Resources, 1982 study of public access catalogs, 78, 92
- Dot matrix display screens, and eyestrain, 25
- Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975, 102
- Elderly. See Online catalogs for the elderly
- Ergonomics: definition, 17; and office automation, 16-28; of workstation designs, 17-28, 62. See also Workstations for video display terminals
- Evaluation teams, and consortia, 53
- Eyestrain: and dot matrix display screens, 25; and lighting, 26-28; and video display terminals, 24-28
- Fair information practices, 119-20
- Fatigue: physical, and workstations, 19-20; visual, and workstations, 24-28
- Flexplace, 40-41
- Flowcharts, and planning process for automation, 51
- Foreign patrons. See Online catalogs for non-English speakers
- Funding, of automated library systems, 49

- Geac Computers International, training of library employees, 60, 72
- Glare on video display terminals: 26-28; causes, 26-27; control, 27-28
- Hackers, 5
- Handicapped. See Online catalogs for the handicapped
- Help screens, 81. See also Online tutorials
- Implementation schedule: for automated library systems, 56-57; role of vendors, 54-55
- Indiana University Libraries, planning process for library automation, 63-65
- Information Technology and Libraries*, 31
- Instruction sheets, for online catalogs, 68, 71, 74, 87
- Instructional brochures for online catalogs: 108-15; artwork, 111; budget, 110-11; description of computer system, 109-10; grids, 112, 115; instructions, 110; layout, 112, 113; library name and logo, 109; paper, 111; pictures, 109, 111; printing, 111; purpose, 115; size, 111-12; screen diagrams, 110; title page, 109; typography, 112-13, 113-15; use of symbols, 114-15
- Job classifications, for personnel in library automation, 33-34. See also Automation/Systems Librarian
- Keyword access, in online catalogs, 80
- Labor/management relationships, in library automation, 41-42
- Layout, of instructional brochures, 112, 113
- Levy, Ian. Automating Library Procedures: A Survivors Handbook, 60-61
- Library automation, and personnel. See Personnel in library automation
- Library confidentiality statutes. See Privacy, legal aspects
- Library director, role of in automation process, 71-72, 73
- Library logos, in instructional brochures, 109
- Library staff: additions to due to automation, 75; boredom, 61, 62; communication, 65, 70; and computer equipment, 56; and equipment location for automated systems, 51-52, 65-66; involvement in implementation of automated systems, 60-61, 64, 67; involvement in planning process for automation, 48, 51-52, 66; reductions in due to automation, 75-76; support for automation, 47-49; as trainers, 61; training of on automated systems, 55, 73; turnover, 72-73, 76. See also Personnel in library automation
- Library technical assistants, and introduction of library automation, 35-36
- Lighting at video display terminal workstations: 25-28; control, 27-28
- Microcomputers, effects on users of online catalogs, 79-80
- National Association of Working Women. See 9 to 5
- National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health, 39
- 9 to 5 (National Association of Working Women), 39
- Northbrook (Illinois) Public Library, 95, 96, 97
- Office automation, and ergonomics, 16-28. See also Workstations for video display terminals
- Online catalogs: advertising, 80; bibliographic instruction, 87; and Boolean logic, 80-81; developments, 78-79; effects of microcomputers on users, 79-80; help screens, 81; instructional brochures, 108-15; keyword access, 80; monitoring, 79, 90; and other catalogs, 89; physical considerations, 82-84, 88; printing options, 84; public opinions, 77; and public relations, 81, 90; and retrospective conversion, 89; subject

- access, 80; terminal preferences of users, 82-84; use of v. use of card catalog, 89-90; and user behavior, 79-80; and user interfaces, 81-82
- Online catalogs for children and youth: 94-100; implications, 94; and literature, 95; observations of users, 98-100; staff benefits, 97-98; staff involvement, 96; user benefits, 96-97
- Online catalogs for the elderly, 105-06
- Online catalogs for the handicapped: 101-05; physical arrangements, 102-03; software, 104; training of staff and patrons, 104-05; and library use, 102
- Online catalogs for non-English speakers: 106-07; awareness of cultural differences, 106; bilingual training and instructions, 106; and non-English databases, 106
- Online catalogs for specialized clientele, 101-07
- Online tutorials, on online catalogs, 87, 108
- Paraprofessionals. See Library technical assistants
- Patron access to online catalogs: handouts, 70, 71; training by library staff, 68-69, 71
- Personnel in library automation: and job analysis, 33; and job classifications, 33-34; labor/management relationships, 41-42; organizational and staffing patterns, 31-32; and performance evaluation, 38-39; and professionalism of librarians, 42; and qualification requirements, 36-37; roles of professional v. support staff, 33, 35-36; traditional public v. technical departments, 31-32; and training, 37-38; working environment, 39-41
- Planning process for automated library systems: and additional staff, 52; at Champaign Public Library and Information Center, 65-68; and consortia, 50-51; contract negotiations, 54; and crises, 55-56; and data processing director, 50; and flowcharts, 51; and funding commitment, 49; implementation phase, 54-55, 56; at Indiana University Libraries, 63-65; nonprofessional staff involvement, 48, 56, 63; politics, 47, 49; reasons, 46-48; resistance, 48, 57-58; and staff communication, 65; and task forces, 63; and teleconferencing, 63; and vendor demonstrations, 51, 64; and vendors, 52-53
- Posture, at workstations, 18-20
- Printing, of instructional brochures, 111
- Printout options from online catalogs: 84; coin-operated printers, 84; remote printing, 84
- Privacy: definition, 118; and fair information practices, 119-20; implications of the computer, 124; legal aspects of library privacy, 120-23; origins, 117; policies, 123; value, 118-19
- Professionalism, with library automation, 42
- Public opinion, of online catalogs, 77
- Public relations, and online catalogs, 81, 90
- Records, Computers and the Rights of Citizens*, 119-20
- Requests for proposals (RFPs), 46, 64
- Retrospective conversion, and online catalogs, 89
- RFPs. See Requests for proposals
- Slide-tape shows, for online catalog instruction, 87
- Staff Training for Automation*. See Association of Research Libraries (ARL) SPEC Kit in Staff Training for Automation
- Stress of technology in the workplace, 5, 8. See also Workstations for video display terminals
- Subject access, in online catalogs, 80
- Task forces: continuation, 73-74; and implementation of automation, 64, 68, 69-70; and planning process for library automation, 63-64; selection, 70-71; time spent, 69-70
- Task lighting, at video display terminals, 27
- Team-building, in consortia, 53
- Technical services role in library automation: inputting, 66; integration with public service departments, 31-

- 32; original cataloging, 66-67; patron training, 68
- Technology, resistance: 3-15; ambivalence, 7-8; and breakdown of interpersonal relationships, 5; and changing attitudes, 6; consultants' responses, 14-15; and decision-making, 6; and invasion of privacy, 7; and librarians, 3-4, 5-6, 48, 57-58; and management responses, 10-11; as a positive force, 9-10; pro-technology people v. resisters, 8-9; and resistance behavior, 10-11; and stress, 5, 8; studies, 4-7; symptoms, 12-14
- Technophobia, 4, 12
- Technostress, 4
- Teleconferencing, in planning process for automation, 63
- Terminals for online catalogs: displays on, 83-84; height, 88; locations, 85; number, 86; printers attached, 84; at remote locations, 86; and signage, 86
- Touch terminals: 82; for the handicapped, 104
- Training: of handicapped patrons, 104-05; of librarians working with handicapped, 104-05; of library personnel for automation, 37-38, 55, 61, 73; for patron access, 68-69, 71
- Typography, for instructional brochures, 112-13, 113-15
- University of Illinois online catalog: 83-84; terminals, 88; user interface, 83-84
- User behavior, and online catalogs, 79-80
- User friendly catalogs, 78-82
- User interfaces for online catalogs, 81-82
- VDTs. See Video display terminals
- Vendors of automated systems: choice, for automation, 52-53; contract negotiations, 54; demonstrations, 51, 64; documentation, 74; and implementation of automated systems, 54-55; and staff training, 55
- Video display terminals: and design of workstations, 17-24; and eyestrain, 17, 24-28; health problems, 17-28, 39-40; and muscle strain, 17. See also Workstations for video display terminals; Terminals for online catalogs
- Visual problems. See Eyestrain and video display terminals
- Workstations, for video display terminals: adjustability, 20-21, 23; chairs, 21-23; ergonomic design, 17-28, 62; and lighting, 24-28; requirements, 20-24
- Youth, and online catalogs. See Online catalogs for children and youth