Monday, April 12 • 4:00 - 6:00 p.m.
Lewis Auditorium

Come meet Stig Fredrikson, foreign news commentator, who is the author of Alexander's Courier: A Journalist's Life in the Shadow of the Cold War. Fredrikson will tell us about his association with Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn – an association that included the smuggling of manuscripts written by the Nobel Laureate out of the Soviet Union.

Stig Fredrikson was a young Swedish reporter in Moscow when he met Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn. For over 25 years he has reported on foreign news for Swedish Television (SVT) and is a foreign news commentator for the “Aktuell” news program of SVT.

Co-sponsored by the University of Illinois Russian, East European, and Eurasian Center and The Urbana Free Library
