

W. E. B. Du Bois Lecture on Pan Africanism
Center for African Studies & Department of African American Studies

Tuesday
February 23, 2010

Lessons in leadership for Africa:

listening to & learning from feminist Pan African discussions, activism, and scholarship

4:00 p.m.

Third Floor, Levis Faculty Center
919 West Illinois Street, Urbana
University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

In transforming South Africa's educational institutions, collaborative efforts must actively break down the artificial divides between the academy and civil society and the hierarchies of knowledge production between these sectors. In the case of the Women and Gender Institute at the University of Pretoria, its past is a mainly

Elaine Salo

Director, Institute for Women's & Gender Studies, University of Pretoria, South Africa

George A. Miller Endowment
Visiting Professor, UIUC

Dr. Elaine Salo is the Director of the Institute for Women's and Gender Studies at the University of Pretoria, South Africa. In her current role as director, Dr. Salo seeks to promote gender justice and women's human rights, and she sees the institute as a means to assist in alleviating poverty amongst women in Southern Africa. She holds a Ph.D. in anthropology from Emory University.

Generously co-sponsored by:

Center for Advanced Study
Center for Global Studies
Department of Anthropology
Department of Gender and Women's Studies
Department of Geography
Department of History
Department of Sociology
Gender and Women in Global Perspectives