

Brown Bags  Spring 2010

Center for African Studies

JANUARY 27

“The Politics of Road Mapping in South Africa”

Prof. Tom Bassett

Department of Geography

FEBRUARY 3

”Mugabe and Reconciliation: The Genesis and Meaning of We Are All Zimbabweans Now”

James Kilgore

Research Associate, Center for African Studies

FEBRUARY 10

“Love and Money in Congolese Popular Music”

John Nimis

Visiting Instructor, Department of French

FEBRUARY 17

“Product (Red): The Marketing of African Misery”

Prof. Teresa Barnes

Department of History/Gender and Women’s Studies

MARCH 3

“African-American or Not? The Case of Contemporary African Immigrant Children Growing up in the U.S. Today”

Margaret Njeru

Center for African Studies

MARCH 10

“International Nutrition and Food Security in Sierra Leone”

Prof. Paul McNamara

Department of Agricultural and Consumer Economics

MARCH 17

“Service Learning Exercise in Sao Tome: Explorations of Plantation Landscapes of the Island Nation”

Prof. Rebecca Ginsburg

Department of Landscape Architecture

APRIL 14

“Differences in Food Inadequacy and Food Insecurity between Adults and Children in Zimbabwe”

Prof. Craig Gundersen

Department of Agricultural and Consumer Economics