Survey for international students:

Please fill this survey if you are an international student and your first language is not English.

1. What country are you from?

2. What is your first language?

3. What department are you in? Major?

4. Do you have trouble communicating with American (friends or professor)?
   a. Very often.
   b. Often.
   c. Sometimes.
   d. Rarely.
   e. Never.
   (Skip to 6 if you choose d and e. Otherwise, go to 5)

5. What are the possible causes that you are not proficient in oral English? (you may choose more than one)
   - Structure of English differs from my first language completely.
   - I am not familiar with American English accent.
   - American English uses phrases and idioms that I do not understand.
   - Americans talk too fast.
   - Others:

6. Does your proficiency in oral English affect your academic performance in the university?
   a. Greatly.
   b. Quite.
   c. Moderately.
   d. Slightly.
   e. Not really.

7. What courses do you have trouble in due to your language proficiency?

8. What is your TOEFL score? (If you didn’t take the TOEFL test, what English Test you have taken?)

9. Do you think TOEFL is a fair test to judge your English language proficiency? Why?

10. Did you ever feel isolated by the Americans because you are not proficient in spoken English?

11. Name the campus resources or facilities related to English learning you know.

12. From where you get the information about the resources/facilities.

13. How do you rate the usefulness of the resources?
   a. Very useful.
   b. Somewhat Useful.
   c. Useful.
   d. Somewhat useless.
   e. Useless.
   _ Not applicable.

14. In your opinion, what can be done to improve the resources?

15. Do you have any general comment or experience about the language barrier that you want to share with us?

(Thank your very much for your time.)