Contents

Preparation for Progress .................................................. 195
William H. Carlson, director of libraries, Oregon State System of Higher Education and librarian, Oregon State College

The Graduate Student's Use of the Subject Catalog ............... 203
Margaret C. Brown, head, technical processes, Public Library, Brookline, Mass.

The College Library and Collateral Reading Lists: The Experiences of an Historian ............................................................... 209
Benjamin A. Sacks, associate professor of history, University of New Mexico

A Program of In-Service Training in College and University Libraries 214
Lucy E. Fay, formerly acting librarian, Sullivan Memorial Library, Temple
University

Another Approach to Staff Status ...................................... 218
Leonard H. Kirkpatrick, librarian, University of Utah Library

The Cultural Resources of the Teachers College Library ........ 221
Ethel M. Feagley, associate librarian, Teachers College Library, Columbia University

Centralized Cataloging in College and University Libraries ..... 225
Janet S. Dickson, order and catalog librarian, Public Library, Providence, R.I.

The American Library in Paris Goes Technical .................... 232
Edith A. Wright, formerly bibliographer, American Library in Paris

Radio Programs for Land-Grant College and University Libraries ...... 234
Robert W. Ott, librarian, Iowa State College Library, Ames

New Microfilm Reading Machines .................................... 239
Mary A. Bennett, supervisor, Binding and Photography Department, Columbia University Libraries

July, 1947, Part I
Volume VIII, Number 3  (Continued on next page)
Contents

(Continued)

Regional Library Centers of Tomorrow: A Symposium

Photocopy Service in the Development of a Bibliographic Center... 243
Charles W. Smith

Future Bibliographic Centers ........................................... 245
LeRoy Charles Merritt

A Union Catalog-Bibliographic Center for California ............... 247
Willis H. Kerr

Subject Approach to the Union Catalog ................................ 249
Clara Beetle

Summary .............................................................................. 251
Eugene H. Wilson

The Reference Survey as an Administrative Tool ................. 252
Rolland E. Stevens, head, Reference Department, and assistant to librarian,
Rush Rhees Library, University of Rochester

College and University Library Statistics ............................. 259

Personnel ............................................................................ 272

News from the Field .......................................................... 274

Review Articles

Progress in Cataloging ...................................................... 278
Raynard C. Swank, University of Oregon Library

Resources for Research ........................................................ 281
Roland Baughman, Columbia University Libraries

Implications of Armed Services Educational Programs ........... 285
William A. Kozumplik, University of Notre Dame Library