1 Henceforth, all University Microfilms prices will include packing, handling, and mailing charges. This will simplify your ordering procedures and aid in the budgeting of your microfilm purchases.

2 Single reels of a selected volume or series of volumes may be purchased separately. Should your requirements be limited to some portion of a regular University Microfilms series, simply write, asking for a quotation on the part you prefer. In certain instances, this will make possible a broadening of your service which might otherwise be impractical.

3 The University Microfilms catalog is being materially extended to include some previously unavailable titles. This new catalog—providing a complete listing of U-M series—should be ready for distribution within the month. A note on your letterhead will reserve your copy.

CHRISTIAN ETHICS

Georgia Harkness

The principles of Christian ethics, their biblical foundations, and their application to major issues today is the subject of this book by a well-known teacher in the field of applied Christianity. The starting point for any valid Christian ethic is the revelation of the nature and will of God that has come to men through Christ. The recorded words and deeds of Jesus in the New Testament form the only adequate foundation for Christian morality.

Dealing with these biblical foundations, the author takes up specific problems—self and society, marriage and family, race, war and peace, and others—and interprets them in the light of the gospel. $3.75

“Literary history has never been made more entertaining”
—HOWARD MUMFORD JONES

A History of American Magazines
1885-1905

By Frank Luther Mott

The fourth volume of this famous history covers many of the great mastheads we know today—The Saturday Evening Post, Collier’s, Cosmopolitan, Ladies’ Home Journal, McCall’s, Vogue, National Geographic. It covers, too, a fabulous period in American history—the Panama Canal was dug; the nation learned that its natural resources needed conserving; the Russo-Japanese War came to an end in New Hampshire, and from the other side of the world it was discovered that “the monkeys have no tails in Zamboanga.” What Americans made of these years, what they wrote and what they read is vigorously recorded here.

Volumes II and III of this remarkable work received the Pulitzer Prize, the enthusiastic praise of critics and historians.

HOWARD MUMFORD JONES said, “The human comedy which Mr. Mott... manages to get into his 1200 odd pages shows that scholarship need not be dull... An indispensable work in libraries.”

ARTHUR M. SCHLESINGER: “The urbanity and charm of his presentation will make the work interesting to all who care about our cultural heritage.”

First of all, budget-conscious librarians know of The Reference Shelf as one of the greatest bargains which come their way. For an annual subscription price of only $8.00 subscribers receive six cloth bound volumes measuring 5¾” x 7¾” and averaging 200 pages in length. [When bought separately each title is $2.00.]

Second, librarians know a subscription to the Reference Shelf guarantees they will have on their shelves six titles which deal with important and controversial issues of the day. Five of the six books deal with single topics. These topics are analyzed from all points of view and their background or history is carefully explained through reprinted articles and speeches by experts, including responsible journalists and top statesmen at every level of government. The views of the President, his Cabinet members, and Congressional leaders are frequently represented.

TITLES FOR 1957 WILL BE ON THE FOLLOWING SUBJECTS:

| The French Crisis | American Highways Today |
| The American Indian | Rep. American Speeches: '56-'57 |
| NUEA High School Debate Topic for 1957-58 | |

[In 1956 this topic was THE GOVERNMENT AND THE FARMER; the 1957 topic has not been chosen.]

The sixth title for 1957 is not yet definite. Each volume, however, will be sent to subscribers, immediately upon publication.

REFERENCE SHELF TITLES FROM PREVIOUS YEARS:

The following titles are among those still in print from 1956. They may be bought at $2.00 each:

| Juvenile Delinquency | The Middle East in the Cold War |
| Government and the Farmer | Community Planning |
| Immigration and the U.S. | |

FOR USE:

The Reference Shelf is highly recommended for use in Speech and Debating, Government and Political Science, and English classes.

COLLEGE AND RESEARCH LIBRARIES is the official organ of the Association of College and Reference Libraries, a division of the American Library Association. It includes general articles, official reports, addresses, reviews of selected books, and news from the field of wide professional interest. It is indexed in Library Literature.

Manuscripts of articles and addresses and copies of books submitted for review should be addressed to the Office of the Editor, School of Library Service, Columbia University, New York City 27. Contributors should examine copies of past issues for style, and should submit articles carefully typed, double-spaced with wide margins. Requests for reprints should be addressed to ACRL, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago 11, at the time the notification is received of the issue in which the article is scheduled to appear. Advertising should also be arranged with the Chicago Office. The scope of the journal does not permit inclusion of personal communications or exhaustive coverage by reviews of the literature of librarianship.

Editors: Material in COLLEGE AND RESEARCH LIBRARIES is not copyrighted. Permission to reprint should be obtained from the author and editor. No comment or pronouncement can be cited as official endorsement of the Association of College and Reference Libraries or of the ALA. The assumption of editorial responsibility is not to be construed necessarily as endorsement of opinions expressed by writers.

A subscription to COLLEGE AND RESEARCH LIBRARIES is included in the membership dues of members of the Association of College and Reference Libraries paying ALA dues of $6.00 or more. To all others the subscription rate is $5.00 a year. Single copies are priced at $1.25; orders of five or more are $1.00 each. Make checks for subscriptions or ALA membership payable to the American Library Association. Correspondence about subscriptions and notification of change of address (three weeks notice requested) should be sent to the American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago 11, Illinois.
