Contents

INTERNATIONAL BOOK PROCUREMENT; OR, FARMINGTON EXTENDED, by Robert Vosper 117

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR STANDARDS ON A COMMON LANGUAGE FOR MACHINE SEARCHING AND TRANSLATION, by Robert E. Maizell 125

THE STATUS OF THE LIBRARIAN ACCORDING TO ACCREDITING STANDARDS OF REGIONAL AND PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS, by Fritz Veit 127

NEW PERIODICALS OF 1959—PART II, by Geraldine Kaufman 137

INTERPERSONAL RELATIONS IN LIBRARIES, by William H. Jesse 149

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION INSTITUTE MEETING, by Phyllis A. Richmond 156

NEWS FROM THE FIELD 159

PERSONNEL 166
   Appointments 166
   Necrology 169
   Foreign Libraries 176

NOMINEES FOR ACRL OFFICES, 1960/61 170

ON BEING FULLY PROFESSIONAL, by Arthur T. Hamlin 172

ACRL BOARD OF DIRECTORS: MIDLWINTER MEETINGS 173

REVIEW ARTICLES 177
   Trends in Documentation, Phyllis A. Richmond 177
   Audio-Visual Tool, Hubbard W. Ballou 179
   Soviet Publishing, Eleanor Buist 179
   Reading for Life, Henry James, Jr. 181
   Mean Why You Say, Paul S. Dunkin 182

COMMENT 184
   Research and Reality, Eli M. Oboler 184
   Library Resources, Roland Baughman 185

ACRL MICROCARD SERIES—ABSTRACTS OF TITLES 186

March 1960

Volume 21 Number 2
More and more, The Interpreter's Bible is replacing all other biblical references because it is so complete and because it is so easy to use. The Working Page of The Interpreter's Bible has the double text, the exegesis, and the exposition all on one page for easier study. No other commentary has this unique arrangement.

Since The Interpreter's Bible is the most used Bible commentary, it should be in every library. "In this work one finds a richer understanding of the entire New Testament and the detailed unfolding of the very truths at the heart of the Christian faith."—Association of American Colleges Bulletin

THE VOLUMES
Vol. 1—General Articles, Genesis through Exodus
Vol. 2—Leviticus through Samuel
Vol. 3—Kings through Job
Vol. 4—Psalms through Proverbs
Vol. 5—Ecclesiastes through Jeremiah
Vol. 6—Lamentations through Malachi
Vol. 7—General Articles, Matthew through Mark
Vol. 8—Luke through John
Vol. 9—The Acts through Romans
Vol. 10—Corinthians through Ephesians
Vol. 11—Philippians through Hebrews
Vol. 12—James through the Revelation, General Articles, Indexes

The twelve volume set, $89.50
Each volume individually, $8.75

Abingdon Press
NASHVILLE 2, TENN.