Dissertations in Physics
An Indexed Bibliography of All Doctoral Theses Accepted by American Universities 1861-1959

This is the first single source book for all American doctoral dissertations in physics. Part I is an alphabetical listing by author with full bibliographical information, including source from which a copy is obtainable. Part II is a permutation subject index produced on the IBM 704 Computer.
Among many uses for the book are bibliographic compilation, patent-claim examination, and verification of applicant information in personnel departments.

Play Activities for The Retarded Child

Bernice Wells Carlson and David R. Ginglend. To help parents and teachers plan psychologically and educationally sound play for the retarded child, this book offers games, crafts, and musical activities designed to develop skills as well as help the child enjoy himself. The activities match five key areas of development—mental health, social, physical, language, and intellectual. Each chapter follows a growth pattern ranging from the simplest activities to the more advanced. 224 pages—Illustrated by Darrell K. Sweet.
