Contents

Re-Evaluation of Microfilm As a Method of Book Storage, by Verner W. Clapp and Robert T. Jordan .................................................. 5

So, Catalogers Are Scarce, by John Zimmerman ........................................... 16

Traffic Patterns, by Keyes D. Metcalf .......................................................... 19

Selected Reference Books of 1961-1962, by Eugene P. Sheehy .................... 31

Legal Aspects of Book Censorship and Their Relationships to Academic Libraries, by Terrence J. Murphy ........................................ 39

The MacOdrum Library of Carleton University, by Hilda Gifford .................. 43

Presentation Copies in the Sandburg Library, by John T. Flanagan ............... 47

Expanding Exchanges, by Fay M. Blake ...................................................... 53

The ALA-Ford Foundation Burma Projects: A Report .................................... 57

Grants Awarded by ACRL Committee .......................................................... 61

News from the Field ...................................................................................... 64

Personnel ............................................................................................. 67

Appointments ....................................................................................... 69

Foreign Libraries .................................................................................. 72

Retirements ......................................................................................... 72

Necrology ............................................................................................ 72

Review Articles ...................................................................................... 74

Resources Handbook, Robert Muller ......................................................... 74

Chinese Beginnings, Kenneth E. Carpenter ................................................. 74

Russian Librarianship, Dale L. Barker ....................................................... 75

International Classification, Maurice F. Tauber ........................................ 77

Classifier's Guide, Earl Farley .................................................................. 78

Science Bibliography, John Sherrod .......................................................... 79

The index for Volume 23 is in the center of this issue. A title page to Volume 23 is also bound in this issue.
McNeese State College was founded in 1939 as a junior college division of Louisiana State University. Separated from LSU in 1950, McNeese State was advanced to four-year status. In subsequent years, many additions were made to the physical plant of the college including new dormitories, married student housing, ROTC Armory, and a three-story science building. In the summer of 1961 the ultra-modern Lether E. Frazer Memorial Library was opened to the 2700 students enrolled at McNeese. Globe-Wernicke book stacks, study carrels, and tables were specified.

If you are considering a new library, or modernizing an existing one, consult Globe-Wernicke's Library Planning Service. Write Dept. Q-12.

GLOBE-WERNICKE

...makes business a pleasure