Vanity Fair died thirty-one years ago. It still has plenty to say.

Lippmann on politics.
Gallico on sports.
Hemingway on bulls.
Graham on dance.
Nathan on drama.
Kent on art.

University Microfilms' facsimile edition of Vanity Fair, all 23 years (1913 to 1936) 282 issues and 32,000 pages, including a complete index, is an invaluable and vital reference source. Vanity Fair captured the innocence, the turbulence, the despair of the 1920's and 1930's; two decades that shaped the sixties. From the assassination of Archduke Ferdinand of Austria through the NRA of Roosevelt. It is a chronicle of these decades. Your university or college, schools of history, journalism, design, fine arts, sociology, marketing, will find the complete Vanity Fair a priceless reference source. It comes in 33 handsomely bound black-and-silver volumes. Each issue is beautifully reproduced. The cost is $1,000, including the index.

CHOICE’s “Opening Day Collection”
Now Reprinted as a Special Supplement

CHOICE’s “Opening Day Collection”—a list of 1,776 books the editors of CHOICE feel should be on the shelves of every academic library when it opens its doors—is now being reprinted as a Special Supplement. Developed with the help of William A. Pease and Richard J. Lietz of the University of North Carolina, the list was first published serially in 4 issues of CHOICE in late 1965. The enthusiasm and continuing demand which the list has since enjoyed prompts its reissue as a convenient separate supplement to CHOICE’s regular monthly issues.

The list is intended to be used as the essential starting point for a library’s further acquisition and specialization. It has been particularly valuable to libraries in new colleges and junior colleges. Typical of comments received from users was the appreciation expressed by a junior college librarian confronted with the need to create seven “instant libraries” for a new system. “Thanks to CHOICE, we will have books for several thousand students when we open next fall.”

The price of the “Opening Day Collection” Supplement is $5.00 per copy. Copies may be ordered directly from CHOICE by filling out and returning the coupon below. Checks should be made payable to the American Library Association.

CHOICE, a monthly publication of the Association of Colleges and Research Libraries, reviews and evaluates more than 5,000 new books of importance to academic libraries every year. An annual subscription is $20.00; single copies are $2.00. Orders for subscriptions and single copies should be sent to the Subscription Department, American Library Association, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, Illinois 60611.

If you are not yet acquainted with CHOICE, a sample copy and other information may be obtained by writing our Editorial Offices, 100 Riverview Center, Middletown, Connecticut 06457.
