CONCORDANCE TO THE PLAYS AND PREFACES OF BERNARD SHAW. Edited by E. Dean Bevan. A 10-volume, computer-assisted work of nearly 7,000 pages, this concordance contains approximately 700,000 entries, each of which presents the indexed word in a line of context. Every entry is accompanied by a citation showing the play in which the entry appears, the textual division (preface, prologue, act, scene, epilogue, etc.), and the page number in the Constable standard edition. A list of works omitted, title codes, and an outline of the plan of the work are included in the Preface. The scope of the concordance and the importance of the work it embraces make this set an essential reference for scholars studying Shaw's works and language, for all major non-academic libraries, and for colleges and universities supporting graduate level English programs. (Ready January, 1972) $275.00.

BOOKMAN'S PRICE INDEX. Volume Five. Edited by Daniel F. McGrath. Volume Five of the now-standard Bookman's Price Index series has just been published. The five volumes in the series contain listings for over 250,000 antiquarian books and periodicals selected from the catalogs issued by the world's leading rare book sellers, specialist dealers, and O.P. books. So that the user may quickly and easily determine the approximate value of a book, the offerings of the dealers are arranged in a single alphabet by author. Each entry gives author, title, place and date of publication, pagination or collation, condition, dealer's name, catalog number, and item number, year the catalog was issued, and price of the book. A master finding list, BPI is the only index to the bibliographical data in dealers' catalogs. "The most comprehensive, clearest guide of its kind." (AB Bookman's Weekly) (Ready Now) $38.50 / volume.

CHILDHOOD IN POETRY — SUPPLEMENT. Edited by John MacKay Shaw. This is a three-volume supplement to Shaw's massive Childhood in Poetry, published by Gale in 1967. Containing all new matter on 60,000 poems, the Supplement follows the convenient arrangement of the original set. The new work provides extensive details and samples of poetry for over 8,000 books in which the poems were first published. Books are listed alphabetically by author; title pages are recorded in full. The index contains a listing by keyword plus a separate author and title list of all books cited. (Ready January, 1972) $87.50.

BOOKPLATES: A SELECTED, ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY OF THE PERIODICAL LITERATURE. Edited by Audrey Spencer Arellanes, secretary of the American Society of Bookplate Collectors and Designers. Based on the editor's extensive research and years of experience as a collector, this bibliography lists and briefly summarizes periodical literature relating to bookplates from 1822 to the present. The 5,445 entries in the 544-page bibliography are arranged alphabetically by the nearly 600 journals and chronologically under each journal. The work contains a generous sampling of bookplate design representing various methods of reproduction (woodcuts, engravings, etc.). Bookplates is a one-of-a-kind tool for bookplate enthusiasts and collectors as well as for those who use such material for further study in literature, history, art, library science, genealogy, heraldry, science, and medicine. With an index of subjects and artists and an author index. (Ready Now) $15.00.

KENNETH MILLAR / ROSS MACDONALD: A CHECKLIST. Compiled by Matthew J. Bruccoli. This is the inaugural volume in a series of checklists of living authors to be published under the Bruccoli-Clark imprint by Gale. Currently in preparation are bibliographies of the works of Kurt Vonnegut, Jr., Robert Lowell, and James Dickey. Each volume is edited by a specialist, and most will have prefatory material by the subjects themselves. Typical of the proposed volumes, the Millar/Macdonald Checklist is a thorough bibliographical guide to the works of an active, vital author whose latest novel, The Underground Man, has been critically acclaimed and widely read. The Checklist, introduced by an auto-biographical essay written by Millar especially for this volume, describes not only his books but also lists his own stories, reviews, articles, verse, and juvenilia. Included are facsimiles of all American and English title pages plus photographs and reproductions of manuscript and notebook pages. (Ready Now) $8.50.
