Ask any bookman. The big ones. He’ll give you that unkempt smile while quoting a title from another’s catalogue. He may even drop his billfold. His answer? Sherrinford got there first. Trying to get around the dictum and pressure in making acquisitions to, or completing special collections? Just write or cable Sherrinford. He won’t place you on his mailing-list. He won’t forward you catalogues or bibliographically pristine broadsides for all to see, and publicize. Through private and unprecedented offerings of unpublished material only, Sherrinford will make an open and shut case of your special collecting requirements. And he’ll quote the unpublished item you want, catalogues in advance of any book dealer. Scholarly legwork. That’s our bag. Sherrinford will get farther on a farthing than any establishment man. A fazenda in the back country of Sao Paulo. Sherrinford has brought back the last known papers of Stefan Zweig. A manor, on a loch in Scotland. Sherrinford has an option on bundles of unpublished letters and many firsts, with a provenance to Tobias Smollett. With Sherrinford, quality is not just a name on a catalogue cover. Quality is the unpublished, and this is our only criteria. A letter, a holograph manuscript, a correspondence too precious to be offered on a wholesale basis. Through Sherrinford, the realization of your requirements becomes a well-calculated probability. Follow the treadmarks of Sherrinford. Get his number. His devises are beyond the imagination, means or ken of any book dealer. The hungriest and fattest. Sherrinford would rather be a trifle cool, calm and collected, working in the shadows, for you. Sherrinford would never inflate his prices by inflating his ego. He’s not an all cap name across the page of a scholarly publication. Our man directs his PR with an abundance of stealth and good taste, in the right direction. Where you get the most out of it. He’ll play baccara at Monte Carlo, with Lord B---------- there’s more than casino money and conversation here. The unpublished papers of one of Byron’s terribly distraught lovers. Cable or write to Sherrinford now. Tell him about the material you want. He won’t ring up a dealer in Edinburgh, hoping you haven’t already been solicited. We’ll go out into the field for you. Far a’field of any catalogue. Brescia, Benares, Cyprus, Dieppe, Gerona, Killarney, Leiden, Monaco. Sherrinford will look after your scholarly interests with regular reports and communiques directly from the field. Sherlock & Co., Ltd., 777 Silver Spur Road, Suite 132, Rolling Hills Estates, California. Cable address: Sherrinford.
William Byrd of Westover
1674-1744

By Pierre L. Marambaud, University of Nice, France. ix, 297 pp., illus., index. $12.50

William Byrd, a prominent eighteenth-century Virginia planter and politician, was the most noteworthy writer in Southern Colonial America. His letters, diaries, and publications are witty, skillfully written, and have proved also to be valuable historical sources. Despite the historical importance of Byrd's writings, his last biography was published in 1932 before the discovery of the three secret diaries. It has long been out of date. Marambaud has studied all of Byrd's writings thoroughly and has finally fashioned a comprehensive, unbiased history of Byrd and of eighteenth-century Virginia.

Tidewater Towns
City Planning in Colonial Virginia and Maryland

By John W. Reps, Cornell University. 360 pp., 206 illus. and maps, bibliog., index. $17.50

This study traces the development of colonial towns in the Chesapeake Bay area of Virginia and Maryland. Known as the Tidewater, the area includes the earliest permanent American settlements; these were organized from the outset according to a form of urban planning. Reps discusses the forms and designs of town planning used by the colonists, and he traces their development up to the nineteenth century. Particular attention is paid to Annapolis and Williamsburg, both innovations in North American town design. The Williamsburg section is of special interest because Reps offers the first credible explanation for the old mystery of how the town was planned so that its streets would converge to form the letters W and M. Numerous illustrations of original town plans and views are included, many of which have never been published before.

The Collapse of Orthodoxy
The Intellectual Ordeal of George Frederick Holmes

By Neal C. Gillespie, Georgia State University. 300 pp. (tnt.), frontis., bibliog., index. $9.50

The Collapse of Orthodoxy is the only complete biography of George Frederick Holmes, the first president of the University of Mississippi and later professor of history and political economy at the University of Virginia. He spent his life conveying to Americans new ideas from nineteenth-century Europe. As a distinguished essayist, reviewer, and teacher of history, literature, and economics, Holmes contributed much to the thinking of his times. His philosophical debates—particularly those with Comte about positivism—are vividly described here and are of considerable importance.

White, Red, and Black
The Seventeenth-Century Virginian

By Wesley Frank Craven, Princeton University. 128 pp. (tnt.), index. $5.75

White, Red, and Black examines and compares the three races who lived in Virginia during the seventeenth century. Each is described according to its origin and cultural background, its population in America, its settlement locations, and its relations with the other two races. Craven's lectures correct many assumptions long held by historians, and they open the way to a greater understanding of the beginning years of our nation. Extensive notes amply document the author's conclusions and provide a helpful summary of other scholarship on the subject.

University Press of Virginia
Charlottesville
Following the pattern set by the Biographical Directory of the American Congress, 1774-1961, this new directory provides biographical information on each of the nearly five hundred persons who have served or are serving in the executive branch of the United States government.

Each entry includes name, parents’ names, birthplace and date, marital status, children, political affiliation, education, military service, other governmental service, business and academic position, religion, and a short bibliographical note listing primary and secondary works about the subject.

Particularly notable are the eight indexes: Index I. Presidential Administrations (Chronological listings of administrations with listings of names and offices held); Index II. Heads of State and Cabinet Officials (Listing by office [Presidents of the Continental Congress, Presidents, Vice-Presidents, Secretaries of State, etc.], cabinet level and above, with alphabetical listings of names giving dates and presidents under whom served; Index III. Other Federal Government Service (All non-cabinet-level posts); Index IV. State, County, and Municipal Government Service; Index V. Military Service (Listing by branch of service with dates and highest rank held); Index VI. Education (Highest level attained above high school [undergraduate, graduate and professional school, informal education, with date of completion]); Index VII. Place of Birth (Alphabetical listing by states and a separate list of foreign countries, including date and city or county of birth); Index VIII. Marital Information (Whether single or married; if married, date(s) of marriage(s) and name(s) of spouse(s)).

Meetings are listed for a two year period and each issue is completely updated and cumulated.
