A complete collection of all presidential press conferences from Woodrow Wilson through Harry S. Truman.* This major historical resource program makes available, for the first time, a complete, indexed, microfilm record of all press conferences of Woodrow Wilson, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Harry S. Truman including unpublished press conferences formerly classified for security purposes.

The collection has been assembled through the cooperation of presidential libraries and scholars of the American Presidency. Advisors include:

Donald R. McCoy, Professor of History, University of Kansas.
Arthur S. Link, Editor, The Papers of Woodrow Wilson.
Lawrence E. Wikander, Curator, Calvin Coolidge Memorial Room.
Oliver Hayes, Director, Forbes Library.
Thomas T. Thalken, Director, Herbert Hoover Presidential Library.
Philip C. Brooks, Director, Harry S. Truman Library.

*Excluding Warren G. Harding, 1921-23: no known records of his press conferences have been found.

The presidential press conference is a 20th century development of great importance. Press conference transcripts document the interplay of newsmen seeking information about weighty government policies and operations and of presidents trying to guide the distribution of information. The conference questions and answers are a rich source of research material and superb index to the major concerns of the press, the public, and the White House. As such, the record of presidential press conferences is of outstanding significance to students of American History, journalism and politics.

An up-to-date treatment of all aspects of the administration of a university library is provided for librarians, other academic personnel, and library school faculty and students in the recently published University Library Administration. Written from the point of view of the library director by Rutherford D. Rogers, Yale University Librarian, and David C. Weber, Director of Stanford University Libraries, the text deals with the full range of administrative issues and problems that affect the essentials of library operation, service to its clientele, policy determination, program planning, financial support, and relations with faculty, student, university officials, and the community.

University Library Administration is not a historical study of the development of university libraries; rather it concentrates on problems of the late 1960's and anticipated problems of the 1970's. At the same time, it is a practical document, including a number of specific statements of policy or regulations from a variety of universities. The authoritative information contained in University Library Administration can be applied by librarians of college and research libraries, as well as university libraries. The chapters on personnel, building planning, automation, and organization and communication will be especially useful to public librarians.

An abbreviated version of the Table of Contents, shown on this page, which indicates only the main chapter and section headings of the book, reveals that virtually every phase of the operation of the modern university library is considered.

University Library Administration is illustrated with numerous photographs and charts, and includes eight appendixes. There is a detailed index, and selected references are given at the end of each chapter.

Critics have hitherto tended to study Shakespeare's last plays in terms of their symbolic patterning, as if they were purely literary texts. Professor Foakes here seeks to understand and explain the last plays as dramatic structures for the stage. Starting from the dark comedies, he shows the ways in which Shakespeare was affected by the new techniques and possibilities for drama opened up by the innovations of the years after 1600, notably the rise of the children's companies. The main line of development of Shakespeare's skills is shown as leading from the dark comedies, through the late tragedies to the last plays.

Coleridge's famous lectures on Shakespeare, given during the winter of 1811-12, were compiled by John Payne Collier under the title of Seven Lectures on Shakespeare and Milton and not published until 1856. The accuracy of Collier's text has always been in question, however, and recently R. A. Foakes began to study Collier's shorthand notes. He uncovered their code, transcribed them himself, and discovered that his transcription differed considerably from Collier's. Here for the first time is the accurate text of Collier's original notes. Truer to Coleridge's actual lectures, it makes more sense and is livelier in style than Collier's embellished transcription.

This illustrated booklet examines both scholarly and popular publications of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in order to determine what notions the Elizabethans had about Africa. Fairly accurate studies along with maps and accounts of sea voyages and land travel helped to dispel many fanciful legends about Africa. The evidence gathered from the plays, publications, and Elizabethan drawings discussed in this booklet indicate that Elizabethans had a far greater interest in and knowledge of Africa than has been supposed by most literary critics.

These two sets of essays which express the literary tastes and fashions of seventeenth-century England are reprinted here for the first time since their publication in the early 1600's. Tuvill, who was educated at Cambridge and became a clergyman and author, wrote in support of secular and religious causes. His topics are of enduring interest, reflecting his quiet, commonsense attitudes on various subjects such as poverty, the force of reason and cautions in friendship.
Each section is available for immediate delivery on 105 x 148mm (4" x 6") positive microfiche, negative microfiche or micro-opaque cards. Order from NCR/Microcard Editions, 901 26th St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20037.
Ask any bookman. The big ones. He’ll give you that unkempt smile while quoting a title from another’s catalogue. He may even drop his billfold. His answer? Sherrinford got there first. Trying to get around the dictum and pressure in making acquisitions to, or completing special collections? Just write or cable Sherrinford. He won’t place you on his mailing-list. He won’t forward you catalogues or bibliographically pristine broadsides for all to see, and publicize. Through private and unprecedented offerings of unpublished material only, Sherrinford will make an open and shut case of your special collecting requirements. And he’ll quote the unpublished item you want, catalogues in advance of any book dealer. Scholarly legwork. That’s our bag. Sherrinford will get farther on a farthing than any establishment man. A fazenda in the back country of Sao Paulo. Sherrinford has brought back the last known papers of Stefan Zweig. A manor, on a loch in Scotland. Sherrinford has an option on bundles of unpublished letters and many firsts, with a provenance to Tobias Smollett. With Sherrinford, quality is not just a name on a catalogue cover. Quality is the unpublished, and this is our only criteria. A letter, a holograph manuscript, a correspondence too precious to be offered on a wholesale basis. Through Sherrinford, the realization of your requirements becomes a well-calculated probability. Follow the treadmarks of Sherrinford. Get his number. His devises are beyond the imagination, means or ken of any book dealer. The hungriest and fattest. Sherrinford would rather be a trifle cool, calm and collected, working in the shadows, for you. Sherrinford would never inflate his prices by inflating his ego. He’s not an all cap name across the page of a scholarly publication. Our man directs his PR with an abundance of stealth and good taste, in the right direction. Where you get the most out of it. He’ll play baccara at Monte Carlo, with Lord B---------. There’s more than casino money and conversation here. The unpublished papers of one of Byron’s terribly distraught lovers. Cable or write to Sherrinford now. Tell him about the material you want. He won’t ring up a dealer in Edinburgh, hoping you haven’t already been solicited. We’ll go out into the field for you. Far a’field of any catalogue. Brescia, Benares, Cyprus, Dieppe, Gerona, Killarney, Leiden, Monaco. Sherrinford will look after your scholarly interests with regular reports and communiques directly from the field. ENGLISH LANGUAGE

BOOKS BY TITLE: A CATALOG OF LIBRARY OF CONGRESS PRINTED CARDS

Although title arrangements of bibliographic materials often permit simpler, easier, and faster consultation than the more common author arrangements, there has until now been no truly comprehensive published bibliography arranged in title order.

The serious need for such a tool will be met by Gale's forthcoming English Language Books by Title, a catalog based on Library of Congress depository cards arranged by title and reproduced in their entirety (including LC and Dewey numbers and subject tracings). Cards included pertain to works completely or principally in the English language, regardless of place of publication.

THE BASE SET—Covering the years 1969 and 1970, the base set will consist of more than 160,000 entries in 20 volumes. The first two volumes will be ready for shipment in June, 1971; publication of the entire set will be completed before the end of the year. The base set is priced at $380.00.

QUARTERLY SUPPLEMENTS AND ANNUAL CUMULATIONS—Supplements to the base set will appear quarterly; the first supplement will cover January through March, 1971. Each two-volume, paperbound issue will contain about 20,000 entries, or about 80,000 entries a year. Annual cumulations, clothbound, will be issued about four months after the close of each year. The annual subscription to the quarterly supplements is $150.00 per year; the annual cumulation also costs $150.00 per year.

ADVANTAGES OF THE TITLE APPROACH—In addition to those already mentioned, some of the more prominent advantages of the title approach are that it will:

- simplify searching and permit use of subprofessionals for this function
- make possible the immediate preparation of catalog cards by the Polaroid process or similar methods
- include under their titles government publications and publications of corporate authors which are not listed at all in some bibliographies
- give an alternate point of entry and enable the determination of LC card order number when the author is uncertain or incorrectly cited
- help eliminate confusion when main entry information in inter-library loan requests does not correspond with main entry established by the lending library
- in general, give added flexibility to search and research activities which until now have been handicapped by the almost exclusive use of author names as the basis for organizing catalogs and indexes

TYPES OF PUBLICATIONS INCLUDED—Included among the 80,000 titles to be covered annually in the new Gale publication will be the following types of material, many not covered in any other source providing title access: books, monographs, and periodicals; publications of university presses, institutes, research units, etc.; local, state, federal, and foreign government publications; maps, reports, and pamphlets; reprints; publications in microform; and other published materials in English cataloged by LC, regardless of publisher or country of origin.

FURTHER INFORMATION—Please write for a detailed brochure describing the catalog, the professional staff involved in its preparation, and the trial plan under which the catalog may be used free for 90 days. For immediate answers call Robert Cartwright collect at (313) 961-2242.
