15,000 annual increase now.

20,000 annual increase in the next 30 years.

That's a conservative estimate of the rate of increase in new serials—worldwide—that libraries have to cope with.

AN OUTSTANDING LANDMARK IN PUBLISHING HISTORY

HOUSE OF LORDS

A recent review and historical analysis of the papers by the British Journal of Librarianship cites the value of this set. This scholarly review, which is well worth having, can be yours at no charge. (See coupon below.)

REPRINT EDITION 1641-1805

These papers constitute one of the most substantial and richest sources of British legal, political and social history for the period they cover. Because of their great rarity, they have remained virtually unknown to historians and legal scholars and the great majority are not in the Commons papers.

In a projected 60 volume set, the papers for this period cover such documents as:

... two reports of the Board of Trade on the American colonies
... a report on the disturbances in Boston in 1774
... bills on industrial, commercial and economic subjects and the bills, minutes of evidence relating to the slave trade
... other papers in contemporary areas, such as: a Bill to prevent seditious meetings and assemblies.

Price $3,000 which can be extended over a 3 year period.

MICROFILM EDITION 1806-1859

These years are covered with a microfilm edition—covering some 930,000 pages of text in 1600 volumes. This microfilm edition will be the most complete set available anywhere—with a considerable portion of the papers being unique to the Lords and not to be found in the papers of the Commons.

The 16,000 papers for this period include reports of Select Committees and Royal Commissions, Bills (legislative drafts), statistical returns, peerage cases and the minutes of proceedings of the Lords from 1837. Among them are the most important documents of 19th century history, e.g. the Chadwick Report on the Sanitary Condition of the Labouring Population of Great Britain, 1842.

Price of the microfilm: $12,500 payable over a 3 year period.

COMBINATION OFFERING: $15,000 payable over a 3 year period.

the trip to England.

Immediate access to our collections of Early English Books is better than a sabbatical in Great Britain—although perhaps not as much fun. Students and faculty alike will enjoy the benefits of doing research from primary sources when they are in your library.

Our collections include almost all the titles listed by Pollard and Redgrave in their “Short-Title Catalogue. . . 1475-1640” (STC I), and by Donald Wing in his “Short-Title Catalogue. . . 1641-1700” (STC II).

Through the cooperation of libraries in Great Britain and the United States, we are photographing the titles from these two authoritative bibliographies, and making them available to the academic community on 35mm roll microfilm and as bound, xerographic copies. Included with the microfilm are guides listing the collections’ contents by reels, and cumulative cross indexes by STC number.

These primary sources for the study of Tudor and Stuart times are issued serially as additional titles are photographed. They are a very economical way for your library to increase its holdings dramatically—without the need for elaborate storage facilities or an increased budget.

Further information about these collections can be obtained from the Series Product Manager, Xerox University Microfilms, 300 North Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, MI 48106.

NOYES DATA GOES HARD COVER WITH NO INCREASE IN PRICE

Due to the rapidly growing demand for Noyes Data publications, and the lower costs resulting from increased sales per title, all books published from January 1973 onward will be bound in more expensive hard cover, at no increase in price.

The principal reason for previously publishing our books in soft cover was timeliness. Technology is changing so rapidly that publication in soft cover allowed us to publish very quickly, giving you up-to-date information. However, during the past year, we have been working very closely with our printers and binders, and have developed specific techniques allowing us to publish just as quickly in hard cover.

Therefore, our hardcover technical reviews and other books will continue to reflect our policy of giving you the latest up-to-date technology and manufacturing techniques. Libraries and individuals will both benefit by the more durable hardcover binding.

In response to the insistence of librarians, Gale is pleased to announce the revival of Book Review Index, a master key to all reviews in over 200 periodicals, including Saturday Review, Library Journal, Choice, Time, Booklist, Harper's, Atlantic, New York Review of Books, Horn Book, and New York Times. Until its suspension at the end of 1968, BRI helped users pinpoint the reviews they wanted to read. Now, with publication resumed, this essential tool will again serve librarians and students, researchers, and other library patrons. BRI entries give all the information needed to locate current reviews: author’s name . . . title of book . . . reviewing publication . . . date and page of review. BRI will cover approximately 65,000 reviews of 35,000 new books each year.

PERIODICAL ISSUES

This service provides an index to reviews of books at the vital time they are being considered for purchase by libraries and being discussed by the reading public. For the past few months Gale’s experienced BRI team has been indexing 1972 reviews, and three double-size issues covering 1972 are slated for publication in late 1972 and early 1973. In 1973 BRI will be issued on a bimonthly schedule so that subscribers will have information on reviews as quickly as possible. For convenience, every second issue will cumulate the preceding issue. Subscriptions to periodical issues of BRI are $45 per year.

ANNUAL CUMULATIONS

FUTURE YEARS. Shortly after the close of each year, cumulations of periodical issues for that year will be published, making reference to reviews of past years fast and convenient. The 1972 cumulation will be ready in the spring of 1973. The clothbound annuals for 1972 and later years are priced at $45 each.

ANNUAL CUMULATIONS NOW IN PRINT. Cumulations for 1965, 1966, 1967, and 1968 are available for immediate shipment. Together, these four volumes cover about 275,000 reviews of nearly 135,000 titles. Clothbound annuals for 1965 to 1968 are $30 each.

RETROSPECTIVE INDEXING

During the three years of BRI's suspension, the over 200 magazines indexed printed about 175,000 reviews. The resumption of BRI includes plans to cover this gap through the publication of annual volumes. The 1971 cumulation will be ready by mid-1973, followed as rapidly as possible by cumulations for 1970 and 1969. Annuals for 1971, 1970, and 1969 are priced at $45 each.
