AN ANTHOLOGY OF ESSAYS ON EMINENT PRINTMAKERS OF THE WORLD

Edited by Lauris Mason and Joan Ludman

- over 6,000 pages
- more than 2,900 plates, superbly reproduced
- examines 233 of the world's most noteworthy printmakers of the 18th-20th centuries
- includes 347 articles reproduced in their entirety, complete with illustrations, checklists and catalogues
- organized alphabetically by name of individual artist for easy reference
- contains a complete table of illustrations and a detailed index
- also includes an introductory essay on the history and development of the renowned PRINT COLLECTOR'S QUARTERLY

PRINT COLLECTOR'S QUARTERLY, which was originally published 1911-1951, has been considered one of the foremost English-language journals devoted exclusively to the study of printmaking, drawing, and book illustration. Now studies on the world's greatest printmakers which first appeared in the pages of PCQ are available in a single collection. This handsome set contains essays on individual artists and on schools of printmaking dating from the entry of the craft into modern times through its refinement in the early twentieth century. Detailed articles explore the fine points of the various techniques used by the printmakers and describe their specific works.
