The oldest continuing approval program remains the best, still the one that is the measure of excellence for all others. Since 1969 Baker & Taylor's professionally run Approval Program has combined quality and economy into a cost-effective means of developing and maintaining library collections.

Broad-based coverage and maximum flexibility make it easy for academic, research, and special libraries of all sizes to participate in an acquisitions service geared to individual collection development requirements.

Compare these features with your current system:

- Comprehensive Coverage of Academic Titles: Continual monitoring of the output of thousands of publishers results in the selection and bibliographic control of more than 30,000 new titles each year.
- Notification Slip Orders: Equal privileges apply in regard to discount, free shipping, and returnability.
- Special Feature: The availability of monographic series, serials, and sets as profile matches eliminates the need to place all appropriate continuations on standing order.
- Guarantee on Approval/Claiming Service: Titles have equal privileges in regard to discount, free shipping, and returnability.
- Economy: Baker & Taylor never adds a service or shipping charge, and our discounts are the best in the industry.
- Professional Service by Trained Librarians: Experienced collection development personnel assist the library in the creation and maintenance of the profile, and personally handle all customer service functions.
- Statistical Management Reports: These free reports provide summary data on titles shipped. Information may be sorted by detailed subject, general subject, or publisher.
- Collection Development Analysis: This process aids the library in the refinement of its profile.
- Directions: A bibliographic journal of recently published titles selected for the Approval Program is provided free of charge to users.
- Related Services: The Approval Program is complemented by a full range of academic programs including our Continuation Service and Cataloging & Processing options.

Announcing Part 2
PAPERS OF THE NAACP

Editorial Adviser: August Meier
University Professor of History, Kent State University

Part 2: Personal Correspondence of Selected NAACP Officials, 1919-1939

The materials in this collection contain a wealth of insight on the lives and work of upper-echelon NAACP officials over two critical decades of the Association's history. The largest selections are those pertaining to Thurgood Marshall and Walter White, the Association's Special Assistant Counsel and Executive Secretary, respectively—neither of whom has yet been the subject of thorough biography. Other officials represented are Special Counsel Charles Houston, Special Assistant to the Secretary Juanita Jackson, Executive Secretary James Weldon Johnson, Branch Coordinator E. Frederick Morrow, Chairman of the Board of Directors Mary White Ovington, Field Secretary Dr. William Pickens, and Assistant Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins.

The correspondence ranges from routine office matters to musings and speculations upon the goals and programs of the Association. The selections for Charles Houston and Thurgood Marshall, for example, are filled with comments on pending NAACP litigation. The materials on the two executive secretaries, James Weldon Johnson and Walter White, contain portions of their literary correspondence as well as glimpses of the view from the apex of the Association's structure. Not only is this correspondence extremely valuable, but it is also a largely untapped source—now published for the first time—for the history of the NAACP and the entire American civil rights movement.

Part 1: Meetings of the Board of Directors, Records of Annual Conferences, Major Speeches, and Special Reports, 1909-1950

Part 1 includes thousands of pages of minutes of meetings of the board of directors, significant records of the Association's annual conferences and meetings, and voluminous reports and special correspondence. Part 1 has been praised as the premier documentary collection on the major developments toward racial equality during this century.

This is a valuable resource for the study of Black history and should be made available to smaller libraries as well as major research institutions. It is a welcome first installment on some of the most important research materials in twentieth-century Black history.

—Dan T. Carter, Department of History, Emory University

These papers are indispensable for understanding not only the NAACP but also the emergence of the entire twentieth-century civil rights movement as well.

—Robert L. Zangrando, Department of History, University of Akron

This is the one major collection that touches upon virtually every critical social, political, and educational issue concerning Afro-Americans during the years 1909 through 1950. No student or scholar of the Black experience in twentieth-century America can afford to bypass or ignore this pivotal collection of primary sources now made so conveniently accessible by University Publications of America.

—Darlene Clark Hine, Department of History, Purdue University
