In This Issue—

Maurice P. Marchant and Nathan M. Smith, The Research Library Director’s View of Library Education

Judith A. Overmier and Elizabeth Ihrig, Eighteenth-Century Short-Title Catalogue: A Medical Model of the Costs of Participation by Specialized Collections

Mary Baier Wells, Requirements and Benefits for Academic Librarians: 1959–1979

Kevin L. Cook, Varying Levels of Support Given to Government Documents Departments in Academic Libraries
This year, see what reference value means.

Macmillan Encyclopedia of Architects
Editor in Chief: ADOLF K. PLACZEK, Columbia University
The most comprehensive reference work of its kind features signed biographies of 2,450 architects, engineers, designers, and landscape architects in well developed historical contexts. With cross-references, bibliographies, a name and building index, and 1,500 illustrations.
4 volumes 2,760 pages, illus. 0-02-925000-5
Prepublication price (until November 30, 1982): $225.00; thereafter: $275.00

Encyclopedia of Educational Research
Fifth Edition
Editor in Chief: HAROLD E. MITZEL, The Pennsylvania State University
Presenting a critical synthesis and interpretation of a wide range of reported research, 256 articles (each new to this edition) reported findings from all levels and areas of education. Includes extensive reference lists, index, and a completely new format.
4 volumes 2,000 pages 0-02-900450-0 $275.00

International Encyclopedia of Population
Editor in Chief: JOHN A. ROSS, Columbia University
In the first fully integrated survey of population studies, 129 original articles cover world population dynamics and policies and every aspect of demography. With bibliographies, cross-references, maps, and other illustrations.
4 volumes 780 pages, illus. 0-02-927430-3 $125.00

Encyclopedia of Bioethics
Two Volumes, Complete and Unabridged
Editor: WARREN T. REICH, Georgetown University
The award-winning reference work is now available in an unabridged, two-volume edition—at a price every library can afford. "No library concerned with the problems of life, death, and health should be without it."—College & Research Libraries
2 volumes 1,933 pages 0-02-925910-X $125.00

KENNETH C. MARTIS, West Virginia University
The first complete visual history of representation in every city, county, and state in U.S. history. In a large 17¼ x 13¼ format, 97 maps depict district boundaries for each Congress, with complete membership lists. Includes a 10,000-name index of every representative.
352 pages, illus. 0-02-920150-0 $150.00

The Macmillan Film Bibliography
A Critical Guide to the Literature of the Motion Picture
GEORGE A. REHRAUER, Rutgers University
This is the most current, comprehensive bibliography of its kind. Volume one contains some 7,000 annotated listings—of biographies, memoirs, histories, works of criticism, film production handbooks, directories, and other works. Volume two is a multi-part index to every person, book, or topic mentioned in volume one.
Volume 1 972 pages 0-02-696410-4 $90.00
Volume 2 500 pages 0-02-696420-1 $50.00
2-volume set: $120.00

Biographical Dictionary of Dance
BARBARA NAOMI COHEN-STRATYNER
Detailed profiles of some 2,900 notable figures from four centuries of dance—European and American, in genres from ballet to cabaret. Here are composers, librettists, designers, teachers, theorists, and impresarios, as well as virtually every major dancer and choreographer. Includes lists of works choreographed. A Dance Horizons Book.
970 pages 0-02-870260-3 $75.00

Bibliography of Bioethics
Volume 8
Editor: LEROY WALTERS, Georgetown University
The latest edition of the definitive guide to the literature of bioethics is now available, published by The Free Press and available on a continuation-order basis. "Indispensable."—Library Journal
375 pages 0-02-933780-1 $60.00

New from
MACMILLAN PUBLISHING CO., INC.
200D BROWN STREET, RIVERSIDE, N.J. 08370

Publisher's prices subject to change without notice.