

“I’ve traveled over 250,000 miles in
10 years just to ‘be there’ for my customers.

“I’ve worn out about 10 sets of tires traveling from New Jersey to Pennsylvania to Connecticut and back visiting academic librarians. And I guess I’ve been through 40 pairs of shoes in that time. But at EBSCO we feel that to offer truly professional service we must offer truly personal service.

“In fact, EBSCO has built its entire operation around the concept of being there for our customers. We’ve located fully staffed and equipped subscription processing centers near enough to our customers to make in-person calls a routine occurrence. And the serials support group located at each of these offices is composed of trained professionals dedicated to responding to your needs quickly and effectively.

“EBSCO realizes that its relationship with academic librarians is actually a challenging and sensitive partnership . . . one that requires its representatives to display not only serials knowledge and expertise, but also conscientiousness and genuine concern for customer needs. That’s why I make myself available whenever I’m needed, whether in person or by phone . . . why I perform inservice training for new customers . . . why I use my experience to foresee and forestall potential problems with your subscription program . . . whatever it takes.”

Audrey Greene Sales Representative

At EBSCO, we think academic librarians should be served by experienced serials professionals who will ‘be there’ for them. Isn’t that what you expect from a professional subscription agency?
