*Systems
Without Standards
Miss the MARC.*

MOST LIBRARY AUTOMATION VENDORS
WOULD LIKE YOU TO BELIEVE THAT THEY
NOW SUPPORT THE MARC STANDARD.
UNFORTUNATELY, SOME OF THEM
HAVE BEEN SHOOTING YOU A LINE.

■

ADHERENCE TO MARC, and to all library-developed standards, is the only true measure of a vendor's commitment to academic libraries and academic librarians. Adherence to standards is also the only way an academic library can guarantee the long-range success of its automation system. CAMPUS-WIDE NETWORKING, for example, as well as the ability to access off-campus data sources, requires careful adherence to automation communications standards. Data Research's use of Ethernet and DECnet/OSI provides you with that power now. SUPPORT OF YOUR CHOICE of workstations from a wide variety of vendors is also possible using ATLAS—A Total Library Automation System from Data Research—because of our support of communications standards. SPECIALIZED DATABASES can be easily built, fully indexed and even made available through the Public Access Catalog because of our use of full-MARC bibliographic and authority records. What's more, Data Research has committed to support the emerging NISO Common Command Language standard for PACs, ensuring that ATLAS users will be at the forefront of tomorrow's movement toward simplified interlibrary resource sharing. WITH FULLY INTEGRATED modules for cataloging, circulation, PAC, acquisitions, materials booking, reserve book room, full-text database searching and a wide range of other services, ATLAS offers academic libraries the most powerful functionality in the industry. Call us today to find out how this power is flexible enough to serve dozens of diverse academic ATLAS installations, including community colleges like Maricopa County Community College in Phoenix and prestigious universities like Tufts.
