Sample Methods of Including Users and Interested Stakeholders

- Membership on NGO Advisory Boards.

- Participants in community groups involved in planning and implementing social services, including civil society organizations, consumer representatives, and trade unions.

- Volunteers to government and NGOs.

- Wrap-around models that include users and informal resources in planning and providing services.

- Participation of stakeholders in surveys and focus groups.