HEAD OF DEPARTMENT OF library Science
PREFACE.

This bibliography considers the subject from the economic standpoint and groups the material under five heads. The first group gives General works; the next four present the material under the fibres, Cotton, Flax, Silk and Wool.

References to periodicals follow the form used in Poole's Index to Periodical Literature, e. g. 2 : 24 is volume 2, page 24.

Abbreviations are used to designate places of publication, e. g. Par. is Paris. Congressional documents follow the form used in the indexes to the Government publications, e. g. U. S. Cong. 53, sess. 3, S. rp. pt. 1, 986. 3290 is United States, Congress 53, session 3, Senate report, part 1, no. 986, serial no. 3290.

The books and periodicals noted have been personally examined either in the University of Illinois library, or in the John Crerar library, Chicago.

The entries are followed by brief analytical notes giving contents, or an idea of the phase of the subject discussed in that particular work.
