Library Trends
Index to Volume 6

PREPARED BY BETTY M. E. CROFT

A
Abstracting, see Indexing and abstracting.
Acquisitions procedures, 157-158; cooperative, 83, 149, 271, 296-306, 334-
336, 340, 356, 357, 358-359, 361-362,
369-370, 378, 381; legal aspects, 431-
442; serials, 156-157.
"Adaptation of machines to book charging," Parker, 35-41.
"Administration of circulation services," McNiff, 13-19.
Administration of libraries, 13-18, 107,
141-145; legal aspects, 270, 387-503.
Architecture and building, legal aspects,
459-467, 497, 499, 492-494.
See also Bookstacks.
Asheim, Lester, "Research in mass communication and adult reading," 120-140.
Association of American Library
Schools, Committee on Research, 104, 105, 109, 248.

B
Bauer, Harry C., "Circulation service and public relations," 52-65.
Bibliographical control, 272-294.
Boards of trustees, 394, 396-398, 422;
powers and duties, 399-410, 413-
416, 469-470, 475, 478-484.
Book collections, growth, 288-289; storage and preservation, 28-34.
Bookstacks, 28-31, 63.
Borgeson, Earl C., "Libraries of non-tax supported institutions," 496-503.
Borrowers, registration, 10, 21-22, 62.

C
Card catalogs, 180-181.
Carlson, William H., "Mobilization of existing library resources," 272-295.
Carnovsky, Leon, "Methodology in research and applications," 234-246.
Catalog cards, 182.
Cataloging and classification, 108, 171-184, 197-198, 275-276, 349-350; legal aspects, 390, 435, 437, 438, 442; rules, 171-176; serials, 181-182.
Catalogs, Card, see Card catalogs.
Charging systems, 6-9, 22-23, 35-40,
62; keysort, 38-39; manual, 35-38;
mechanical, 38-40; photographic, 39.
"Circulation service and public relations," Bauer, 52-65.
Circulation services, 3-100; administration, 13-18; methods and procedures, 20-26; personnel, 15-17, 42-50, 99;
public relations, 52-65.
See also Charging systems.
"Collection, The," Gosnell, 28-34.
College and university libraries, 309-
311; cooperation, 311-324.
Communication, 107, 120-132, 293.
Coney, Donald, "The potentialities:
some notes in conclusion," 377-383.
"Construction and maintenance,"
Marke, 459-468.
Coonan, Margaret E., "Miscellany," 486-495.
"Cooperation among colleges," Thoms-ton, 309-325.
"Cooperation among libraries of differ-et types," Grazier, 331-342.
INDEX

“Cooperation among special libraries,” Henkle, 343-351.
Cooperative purchasing, see Acquisitions procedures, cooperative.
Copyright, 80, 380, 442-454.
County and regional libraries, 396; legal aspects, 437, 486-490.

D
Decimal classification, 176-177.
“Departmentalization and circulation work: problems and relationships,” Gwynn, 87-100.
Depository libraries, 152-153, 277.
Documentation, 106-107, 189-206.
Downs, Robert B., “Research in problems of resources,” 147-159.

E
“Epilogue [to legal aspects of library administration],” 503.
“Establishment and governmental relationships,” Moreland, 392-398.
Esterquest, Ralph T., Introduction to “Building library resources through cooperation,” 257-259.
Exchange of librarians, 344-345.
Exchanges of library materials, 336-337, 349.

F
Facsimile transmission, 380.
Farmington Plan, 73, 147, 148, 149, 301-302.
Federal libraries, legislation affecting, 431-435.
Finances and expenditures, 144-145, 270, 394-395, 499; legal aspects, 469-475.
“Financial support and administration,” Fiordalisi, 469-477.
Fines and fees, 18, 58-59, 472-473.

G
“General problems [in developing resources through cooperation],” Meltcalf, 260-271.
Government publications, 148-149.
Grazier, Robert T., “Cooperation among libraries of different types,” 331-342.

H
Henkle, Herman H., “Cooperation among special libraries,” 343-351.

I
“Increasing library resources through cooperation,” Stanford, 296-308.
Indexing and abstracting, 157, 281-282.
Information storage and retrieval systems, 108, 185-197.
“Interlibrary lending and similar extension services,” Urdge, 66-86.
“Internal administration and its organization,” Gallagher, 399-411.

J

K
Lancour, Harold, Preface to "Research in librarianship," 103-104.
LeBus, Betty V., "Public services and public relations," 478-485.
Librarians, relations with the board, 399-408, 413-414, 415.
Librarianship, 110-112.
Libraries, history, 113-118.
"Libraries of non-tax supported institutions," Borgeson, 496-503.
Library administration, see Administration of libraries.
Library boards, see Boards of trustees.
Library buildings, see Architecture and building.
"Library cooperation in Great Britain," Harrison, 352-364.
Library of Congress, catalog cards, 182; classification schedules, 176, 177-178; National Union Catalog, see National Union Catalog.
Library policing, 59, 490-492.
Library resources, 108, 147-158; surveys, 154-155, 284.
Library Services Act, 328, 473, 479.
Machines, use in libraries, 7-9, 38-40, 291-292.
Mass communication, see Communication.
Metcalf, Keyes D., "General problems in developing library resources through cooperation," 260-271.
"Methodology in research and applications," Carnovsky, 234-246.
"Methods and procedures [of circulation]," Shepherd, 20-27.
Microcopying projects, 150, 302-304, 305-306.
Microfilm, 80-81, 191.
Midwest Interlibrary Center, 30, 31, 146, 153, 153, 164, 270, 277, 278, 304-305.
"Miscellany," Coonan, 486-495.
"Mobilization of existing library resources," Carlson, 272-295.
National Union Catalog, 150-151, 182, 278, 279.
Open shelves, 63.
Photographic charging, see Charging systems, photographic.
Photographic reproduction, legal aspects, 442-455.
See also Microcopying projects; Microfilm.
Policing of libraries, see Library policing.
Private libraries, legal status, 496-501.
Public libraries, cooperation, 326-330; legislation affecting, 438-442.
"Public services and public relations," LeBus, 478-485.
Punched cards, 38-39.
Quigley, Margery C., "A reporter at large," 6-12.
INDEX

R
Readers’ services, 160-168.
Reading habits of adults, 128-129, 132-138.
Reference services, 162-168.
Registration of borrowers, see Borrowers, registration.
“Reporter at Large, A,” Quigley, 8-12.
Research in librarianship, 103-253; coordination, 108, 109, 247-253; financial support, 103, 106.
“Research in mass communication and adult reading,” Ashein, 120-140.
“Research in organization and administration,” Wight, 141-146.
“Research in problems of resources,” Downs, 147-159.
“Research in the school library field,” Fedder, 219-233.
Research methods, 234-245.
Restricted and classified materials, 23-25.

S
School libraries, 220-220.
Shepherd, Giles F., “Methods and procedures [of circulation],” 20-27.
Special libraries, 284-286; cooperation, 343-351.
Stanford, Edward B., “Increasing library resources through cooperation,” 296-308.
State libraries, 219-230; legislation affecting, 435-437.
Statistics, circulation, 17; library, 155.
Storage libraries, see Depository libraries.
Subject headings, 179-180.

T
Technical processes, legal aspects, 430-455.
See also Acquisitions procedures; Cataloging and classification.
Television, 379-380.

U
U. S. Library of Congress, National Union Catalog, see National Union Catalog.
Uridge, Margaret D., “Interlibrary lending and similar extension services,” 66-86.

W

Y