Dear Subscriber:

You may have noticed that since the October 1957 issue we now have a key word on the spine of each number of LIBRARY TRENDS which identifies the subject of the issue. We hope this will be a convenience to those who shelve their LIBRARY TRENDS without binding them, or at least until they are bound.

The suggestion to do this came from one of our subscribers. It is such a good idea that we have decided to provide labels for earlier issues of LIBRARY TRENDS, as well. Enclosed you will find a sheet of gummed labels which can be cut to fit the particular issue and then affixed to the spine with moistening. We would suggest the space between "TRENDS" and the volume numeral.

Sincerely,

Harold Lancour
