From margins of the Energy Shale or closely over the resources.

unconsolidated overburden (9% of original resources)

presence of closely

57% (49 billions tons)

original resources that are at least 40 feet deep (and therefore potentially minable by underground methods),

these lower relatively flat (geologic conditions and economic parameters such as size of reserve block) restr

depth, in these resources conditions

lost in mining during-the

and are therefore mostly suited for sources (areas with low stripping ratios that are free of conflicting land resources (areas with low stripping ratios that are free of conflicting land characteristics for mining, shows the probable trend of future mining of available but potentially restricted by land

available but potentially restricted by land

Major a

Cemeteries

Wabash Valley Fault System

Minimum r

the remaining Herrin Coal resources have greater than 1.67

E Increase Longwall mining.

Although only

9% of the original

120

billion tons have been mined

21% have already been mined (3 billion

9.4 billion tons have been mined

All otherwise available underground

Available with Conditions

Region 2

East Adams Street; Springfield, IL  62701-1615.