
LIBRARY

TRENDS

“Library Trends has become the premier thematic quarterly journal
in the field of American Librarianship.”

Library Science Annual

Both practicing librarians and educators use Library Trends as an essential tool in professional development and continuing education. They know Library Trends is the place to discover practical applications, thorough analyses, and literature reviews for a wide range of trends. See for yourself the breadth of topics covered in the 41st volume.

Libraries and Information Services in the Health Sciences

(Summer 1993) Edited by Prudence W. Dalrymple

Issue addresses major developments in health sciences librarianship related to delivery of information, the educational role of health sciences libraries for staff and administrators, and consumer health information.

Education for and Information Service Careers in Corporate and Information Industry Environments

(Fall 1993) Edited by Linda L. Hill

Contributors to this issue are practitioners, educators, and management personnel and leaders of the Special Libraries Association who discuss preparation for careers in corporate special libraries and information industry environments today and in the future.

Changing Concepts in the Financing of Libraries and the Changing Library Context

(Winter/Spring 1994) Edited by Murray S. Hill

This double issue addresses the library's role in the community, funding for various libraries, budgeting, online costs, and dealing with budget cuts. The second part addresses resource sharing, service fees, fundraising, the role of vendors, networks and costs, personnel concerns, and library facilities.

Subscription price $60 (plus $7 for overseas subscribers). Single copies are available for $18.50, including postage. Order from the University of Illinois Press, Journals Department, 54 E. Gregory Drive, Champaign, IL 61820.