
Index to Volume 47

- Aarne-Thompson classification of tale types and motifs, 541-542, 545
- Academic libraries. See also Distance learning
- faculty concerns, 34
 - interest in scholarly publishing, 38-39
 - lack of monopoly position, 39
 - loss of "brand identity," 32-33
 - marketing services, 3, 21, 29-33
 - myths about, 36-39
 - place in value chain, 33-36
 - provision of comparable service on-site and off, 31
 - roles and contributions, 27-29
 - servicing market segments, 31-33
 - user-centered orientation, 27
 - value-based performance, 35-36
- Accessibility of remote information, 7-20. See also Democratization of access to information
- measures of, 8
 - modes, 9, 15
- Accessibility v. ownership of library resources, 18
- Access to library and archival resources, 801. See also Democratization of access to information
- Adult learners. See Distance learners
- Albrechtsen, Hanne, 185, 188, 293-312
- ALISE Directory 97/98, 677
- American Scholar*, 608, 612-619
- Anecdotes of library history, importance of, 392
- Arbuthnot, May Hill. See Children and Books: A comparison of editions
- Archival preservation, 342
- Archives
- changing technology, 802, 803-804
 - content preservation, 800, 802, 803
 - delivery modes, 803
 - evaluation of electronic resources, 798-800
 - physical preservation, 796, 800
 - traditional practices, 796-798, 801
- Aristotelian classification v. prototype classification, 256-257
- ARL (Association of College and Research Libraries), 69
- Association of College and Research Libraries (ARL), 69
- AT & T employee online service, 172-179
- assessment of needs and expectations, 174
 - history, 172-173
 - relations with vendors, 175-177
 - selection of electronic resources, 6
 - service evaluation, 177-179
- Behaviorial traits of remote users, 11-14, 42-43, 50-51
- Bibliographies, 387-391
- Big Twelve Plus, 146
- Bobo, Juan, 344
- Book culture v. technology culture, 618-619, 628
- Book House, 307-308
- Borei, Karin Begg, 609, 686-698
- Boundary objects. See also Boundary object types

- definition, 298
- as ecological concept, 299–307
- Boundary object types
 - coincident boundaries, 299, 308
 - ideal types or platonic objects, 299, 308
 - repositories, 298, 308
 - standardized forms, 299, 308
- Bowker, Geoffrey C., 185–189, 255–292
- Brown-Woodson, Ina A., 6, 172–179
- Browsing, 629–631
- BTP. See Big Twelve Plus

- Campus design, 420–422
- Canon, literary, 615–616
- Case Western Reserve, 350, 352
- Cataloging, traditional, 210–215
- Center for Electronic Texts in the Humanities, 621
- Change
 - faculty response, 656–657
 - resistance, 793–794
 - retreats as response, 699–710
- Children and Books*, A comparison of editions, 579–601
 - addition of “Viewpoints,” 581–582
 - art, 583
 - changes in headings and subheadings, 589
 - changes in structure of topics, 580–582, 583, 586, 589, 591
 - contrasting styles of storytellers, 595–596
 - criteria for evaluating folktales, 599–600
 - critical analysis, 586
 - dissemination of folktales, 584
 - Euro-centric orientation, 587
 - gender and storytelling, 594–595
 - language used, 560, 580, 582–583
 - national collections of folktales, 584–586, 590–591
 - origin of folktales, 583–584
 - purpose of study, 580–582
 - reading aloud v. storytelling, 596, 597, 598
 - selecting stories, 595
 - tall tales, 590
 - tone, 580
 - treatment of North American Indian tales, 589
 - types of folktales, 587
 - United States folktales, 588–589
 - using folktales with children, 594
 - variants of European tales, 590
- Circuit medical librarianship, 352
 - artifacts, 367–369
 - coding schemes, 364
 - culture of appreciation, 358
 - culture of commitment, 358
 - database record of searches, 367–368
 - delivery of critical information, 361
 - development of new services, 354
 - documentation, 364
 - enlargement of staff, 358
 - evaluation, 359, 366
 - expansion of services, 358
 - goal, 352
 - levels of satisfaction, 367
 - multiple environs, 359
 - patterns of usage, 367
 - quality, 361
 - reference interview, 365
 - reference tools, 364
 - roles/features, 362
 - scope of service, 367
 - service orientation, 358, 361, 369
 - support staff, 359
 - training programs, 354, 369
 - work practices, 357
- Classification, social construction
 - comparison of Dewey Decimal Classification with A Women's Thesaurus, 241–242, 246–251
 - creating space for marginalized domains, 235
 - cultural bias, 187–188, 190
 - mapping as metaphor, 237–240
 - models for, 234–237
 - paradoxical spaces, 241–246
 - quality of constructed space, 242–246
- Classification design
 - coupling of classification system and organization form, 255
 - Database 2001, 303–309
 - librarians' role in developing, 304–310
 - users' role in developing, 304–306
 - using boundary objects, 305–310
- Classification of folktales. See Aarne-Thompson classification of tale types and motifs; Children and Books, A comparison of editions

- Classification research and use, 301–302
 in different stages of public library development, 302
- Classifications, uses of
- Classification systems. See also Faceted classification (FC); Grounded theory (GT) Aristotelian, 256, 287
 as boundary objects, 188, 304–306 contradictory requirements, 258–260 division of approaches to classification and research, 297 empiricism, 295–298 limiting effects of, 309 prototype theory, 256–257, 287 rationalism, 295–298 social constructivism, 295–298, 234–251 uses, 310
- Classroom design, 422–426 age differences, 425 features, 423
- “Clinical Pharmacist,” 79
- COA (Committee on Accreditation), 675
- Collection-based services, 18
- Collection of Puerto Rican folklore. See Mason, J. Alden (collection of Puerto Rican folklore) College & Research Libraries, 790–791
- Commercial databases, 111–112
- Committee on Accreditation (COA), 675
- Committee on the Status of Women in Librarianship, 677
- Common sense cultural model components, 547 and Juan Bobo tales, 549–550 local knowledge, 547, 549–550
- Communication Decency Act (1996), 776
- Communication models
 nontraditional scientific communication model, 193–194
 traditional scientific communication model, 193
- Communication paths, 192–195
- Computerized monitoring of remote use of library resources and services, 7–20 content analysis, 10, 131
 definition, 10
 ethical issues, 19
 limitations, 10–11, 15–20
v. survey research, 13
 Web-server log analysis, 10
 “computerphobia,” 782
- Computer technology in libraries, 607–609
- Computer tools design and use, 344
 first nine of twenty-four functions, 478–479 “pattern languages,” 478 patterns found in Gamma et al., list of, 478 structuralism v. contextualism, 344
- Content analysis, 647
- Controlled vocabulary v. vernacular vocabulary, 224–225
 HIV/AIDs, 201–205
- Cooper, Rosemarie, 3–4, 42–64
- Critical path analysis, 97
(C&RL) College & Research Libraries, 790–791
- Culture of appreciation, 358
- Culture of commitment, 358
- Customary, types, 341
- Customary/ritual lore, 341, 399, 418.
See also Material lore; Verbal lore on college campuses, 427–429
 in virtual environments, 433–434
 in workplace environments, 444, 446–447, 461
- Database 2001 project, 306–308
- Del Negro, Janice M., 344, 579–601
- Democratization of access to information, 614, 615, 774–776
- Dempsey, Paula R., 3–4, 42–64
Dewey Decimal Classification, 187, 241–242, 246–251
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM)*. See also Structuration theory changes, 319 clinical use, 324–329
 criticisms, 319–321
 interpretative schemes, 321–322 models, 318–321
 and neo-Kraepelinians, 318 norms, 322–323
 resources, 322

- Digital libraries, 117–141. See also Reference service in digital libraries human aspects, 119–135
- Disintermediation, 2
- Distance education. See Distance learning
- Distance education strategies, 30–31
- Distance learners. See also Remote users adults, 66–67
 behavioral traits, 11–14
 expectations, 67–70 faculty expectations, 56–58 needs, 4, 18, 43–46, 49, 56, 62, 78–84 on-campus services, 36–37 resources for adult learners, 70–73 satisfaction with service, 46–47 serving market segments, 31–33 student expectations, 58–59
 using health sciences libraries, 75–90
v. on site learners, 161
- Distance learning. See also Evaluation of remote services; Virtual environments context, 49–50 course design, 51–53
 at De Paul University, 54–61
 health science information services, 78–86 LEEP program, 430–434 library services, 51 marketing the library's role, 21–41
 myths about, 36–39
 performance measures, 35–36 reasons for, 21–23, 77
 resources, 71–73
 service enhancements in health science libraries, 84–86 strategies, 30–33
 technical support, 48–49, 69, 71, 86
- Dobb, Linda S., 609, 699–710
- DOCLINE®, 82
- Doctoral studies, 343
- Drucker, Peter F., 22
- Duality-of-structure. See Structuration theory
- Educational technology, 24
- Electronic-based communication attitudes toward, 806–808
 and human needs, 808
- Ehrhard, Barbara J., 4, 65–74
- Electronic journals, partial list of, 747
- Electronic journals and technology, 788–795 change in content, 790–791
 and humanities faculty, 628, 632–633 impact on organization, 791–792 staff expectations, 792, 793 staff resistance to change, 793–794
- Electronic lists, 686–698. See also SWEDE-L listserv; WALDEN listserv distinguishing characteristics, 696 maintenance, 689–690, 697 moderated v. unmoderated, 687–688 potential role in academic scholarship, 696–697 use conventions, 698
- Electronic publishing, 798–800
- Electronic resources advantages, 651–652, 653 disadvantages, 652
 evaluation, 799
 obstacles to use, 653
 preservation of, 800, 802–805 and textual scholarship, 796–798
v. traditional resources, 796–798
- Electronic revolution, 614–615. See also technology
- Evaluation of remote services, 40, 86–87, 140, 177–179
- Faceted classification (FC), 218–232 approach to universe of knowledge, 226 challenges to, 223–224 mapping problem, 228 parallels with grounded theory, 227–229 practical problems, 226 purpose, 221–222
 tool to construct grounded theories, 229
- Faculty, use of technology. See also Humanities faculty, use of technology access, 649, 655–656
 adopters of innovation, categories, 643 focus group interviews, 640, 645–646

- information needs, 652-653
 obstacles to use, 653-654
 perceptions of change, 656-657 for research and class preparation, 651 research topics, future, 661-662 relevance of library, 652
 theoretical models, 642
 use studies, 641-642
 validity of information, 656
- Faculty information needs, 34, 652-653
- FC (Faceted classification), 218-232
- Feminist Task Force of the Social Responsibilities Round Table, 677
- Feuer, Sylvia, 350
- Fialkoff, Francine, 610
- Figa, Elizabeth Gremore, 344, 349-374
- Focus groups. See also Retreats; Surveys with faculty, 640, 645-646 with humanities faculty, 620-622, 640
- Folklore. See also Hearne, Betsy aesthetics, 509-528 appropriation (cultural), 509-528 classification of folktales, 540-541 ethics, 509-528
 Eurocentric interpretation, 560 folklore production, 549-550 interpretation, 513-516 laws, 490-491 orphans, 558-578
 ownership (cultural), 509-528 permission to use, 516-521 personal context, 509-511 sociopolitical context, 510-511
 source notes, 511-513
 swapping v. stealing, 509-528
- Folklore and library science, 342
- Folklore and popular culture, 342
- Folklore and science, 341
- Folklore and software design, 473-484 guidelines, 482
 pattern languages, 478-480
 programming as narrative construction, 480-481 structure v. context, 474-475
- Folklore and technology, 342
- Folklore as information transfer mechanism, 412-413
- Folklore as interdisciplinary field, 343
- Folklore collection, 343
- Folklore in learning environments, 417-438
- Folklore in workplaces, 344
- Folklore of architecture, 418-419
- Folklore of artifacts, research foci, 419
- Folklore of space, 439-469 characteristics, 440-441
 customary/ritual lore, 444, 446-447, 461
 material lore, 444-445, 447 storytelling, 444, 446-447
 verbal lore, 444, 446, 461
- Folklore of space: material lore, 444-445, 447
- Folklore of space: ritual/customary lore, 444, 446-447, 461
- Folklore of space: verbal lore, 444, 446, 461
- Folkloric forms, 341
- Folkloristic approaches to library and information science, 342
- Folkloristic theory, 342
- Folk objects, power of, 396-400
- Folktales and storytelling, 344
- Forum at Bowling Green State University, 705-707
- Full-text databases, 91, 111-116
- Geertz, C. See Common sense cultural model
- Gender stratification in the library profession, 669-685. See also Library education and computer technology, 672-673 history, 670-672 in library education, 673-677
- Giddens, A. See Structuration theory
- Gillaspy, Mary L., 186-187, 190-208
- Global Network Academy, 50
- Gorman, Michael, 605-611
- Grateful Med®, 82
- Grounded theory (GT), 218-232. See also Structuration theory approach to universe of knowledge, 226 challenges to, 223 components, 221 core category problem, 228 parallels with faceted classification, 227-229 practical problems, 226 purpose, 220
- GT (Grounded theory), 218-232. See also Structuration theory
- Gulliford, Bradley, 5-6, 158-171

- Haricombe, Lorraine J., 1-6
- Hartzer, Sandra, 4-5, 91-116
- Health science information services, 78-86
- Circuit Librarian Program, 81
 - city-based programs, 84
 - "Clinical Pharmacist," 79
 - DOCLINE®, 82
 - Grateful Med®, 82
 - "Housecalls," 82
 - "Improving Health Professionals' Access to Information," 81-82
 - "Information on Wheels," 79
 - "Literature Attached to Charts," 79
 - MEDLINE®, 82
 - MEDNET, 82
 - MEDWEB, 84
 - membership programs, 80
 - PREMEDLINE®, 85
 - PubMed, 85
 - shared, 80
 - state networks, 83-85
- Health science libraries, 75-90
- accommodations to remote users, 78-84
 - challenges, 87-88
 - enhanced service tools, 84-86
 - evaluation of services, 86-87
 - expectations of users, 78
 - remote users, 76-77
 - survey of, 78-84
 - variety of users, 76-77
- Hearne, Betsy, 341-345, 509-528
- rating scale, of folktales for cultural sources, 545
- Higher education, 23-25. See also Academic libraries; Distance learning; Faculty, use of technology; Humanities faculty, use of technology
- Hildenbrand, Suzanne, 609, 669-685
- Himmelfarb, Gertrude, 608, 612-619
- HIV/AIDS
- communication models, 192-195
 - controlled vocabulary, 201-206
 - information about, 192-195
 - nature of, 191-192
 - nontraditional scientific communication model, 193-194
 - traditional scientific communication model, 193
- HIV/AIDS and HIV/AIDS Related Terminology: A Means of Organizaing the Body of Knowledge*, 201-205
- "Housecalls," 82
- Huber, Jeffrey T., 186-187, 190-208
- Humanities, assaults on, 615
- Humanities faculty, use of technology, 620-639. See also faculty, use of technology
- access to technology, 622-623
 - attitudes toward, 623-627, 636-637
 - browsing, 629-630
 - digitized images and texts, 633-634
 - electronic journals, 624, 632-633
 - electronic texts, 627, 631-632
 - focus group interviews, 620-621
 - information needs, 652-653
 - Internet, 624-627
 - involvement in technological projects, 621
 - library of the future, 634-635
 - peer review, importance of, 633
 - skill in using, 629, 637
 - time constraints, 626
 - Web-based catalog, 623-627
 - Web sites, 627
- HYTELNET, 773
- ILCSO (Illinois Library Computer Systems Organization), 146
- ILLINET, 55, 146
- Illinois Library Computer Systems Organization (ILCSO), 146
- Immigrants' Child Syndrome, 402-403
- "Improving Health Professionals' Access to Information," 81-82
- Index Medicus*, 363
- "Info rage," 782
- Information, definitions, 495-497
- Information ecologies, 188, 310
- Information literacy, 100
- "Information on Wheels," 79
- Information overload, 485-505
- library and information science, 485-486, 502-504
 - mythology of, 501
 - responses to, 498-501
 - survey questions, 505
 - viewed as myth, 486-491
- Information professionals, 497-498
- Information science v. library science
- curricula, 673-677
 - information society change, 492-493
 - history, 491-492

- Information work environments. See Workplace environments
- Innovation Diffusion Theory, 642-644 adopters to innovation, categories, 643
- Interactive Reference Service, 127
- Interactive remote reference services.
See Reference service in digital libraries
- Interdisciplinarity, 208
- Interlibrary loan (patron-initiated), 144-157 accuracy, 156
 evaluation measures, 152-157
 frequency of use, 155
 growth of need for service, 147, 150 items charged on Illinet Online, 1993-1996, 150 notification of patron, 156 percentage of borrows, self-charge v. traditional, 152 reasons for changes, 146-148
 SIUC ILL borrowing, 147
 at Southern Illinois University, 144-157 staffing issues, 151 turnaround time, 153, 155 user satisfaction, 151-157 where transactions occurred, 154
- International Classification of Diseases*, 255, 257, 261-292 areas of uncertainty, 284-286 change in purpose, 260-264 context of disease, 272-276 diagram of family of disease and health related classifications, 263 evolution of terms, 269-272
 history, 262-269
 implicit narratives, 269-272 internationally recommended death certificate form, 265 interpretation of disease, 287-290 pragmatic classification, 260-269 representation of disease in the developed world, 188 setting, 269-271
 treatment of the life cycle, 278-280 treatment of the virus, 280-284 the "vermillion border," 284-287
- Internet, The browsers, 775-776 early development, 775 equitable access, 656 federal initiatives, 775 as library, 25 service providers, 775-776
 validity of information, 656
- Internet-based electronic resources (e-sources), 746-770
 access, 753-756
 characteristics of respondents, 748-750 citation factors, 758-760
 evaluation, 760-761
 frequency of use, 752-753
 obstacles to use, 765 proposals to increase use, 762-765 reasons for not citing, 750 satisfaction with, 761 search strategies, 756-758 suggestions for improvement, 762-765 survey instrument and methodology, 746-748 technological background, 750-752
- Interviews, 640, 645
- IRS (Interactive reference service), 127
- Jacob, Elin K., 188, 293-312
- Johns Hopkins University study, 620-639. See also Humanities faculty findings, 622-638 methodology, 621-622
 setting, 621
- Jones, Dorothy E., 609, 711-745
Journal of American Folklore, 529, 542, 551
- Juan Bobo stories, 529-556. See also Mason, J. Alden (collection of Puerto Rican folklore); Puerto Rican folklore
- Keyword searching, 801
- Kilpatrick, Thomas L., 5, 144-157
- Kimball, Melanie, 344, 558-578
- Kirkland, Janice J., 605-611, 692
- Krueger, Joachim, 389-390, 393
- Krummel, Donald W. attitude toward human systems, 382 career, 375, 377, 379-382 choosing librarianship as profession, 378-379 education, 377, 379 educator, 384-387 influence of Richard S. Hill, 389

- influence of Stanley Pargellis, 380–382 influence of William Lichtenwanger, 389 interest in bibliographies, 387–391 mentor, 390–391 reading habits, 386–387 scholar, 384–387 vision of “the library,” 377–378, 380
- Lancaster, F. W., 608, 806–809
 Lastra, Sarai, 344, 529–557
 LEEP program. See Distance learning, LEEP program
- Librarians attitudes toward technology, 807, 808 changing role, 627–629
 as mediators between users and technology, 635–638 roles, 3, 16, 119–123, 160, 167, 169–170, 304–309
- Librarians as builders of information ecologies, 308
- Librarians as gateways to information, 3, 122
- Librarians as managers, 27–29
- Libraries changing roles, 793–794 as gateways to information, 3, 122 as natural domain of humanists, 613 reasons for using technology, 789–790 relevance to faculty, 640, 649–652
 as think tank, 16
- Library Administration & Management*, 790–791
- Library as gateway, 3
 Library as think tank, 16
- Library education. See also Gender stratification in the library profession accreditation, 675–676, 677 alliance building, 680 allocation of funds, 679, 680 data collection, 679–680 effects of curriculum changes, 673–677 faculty emphases, 673–677 library science v. information science curricula, 673–677
- Library Hi Tech*, 788
- Library Information and Technology Association (LITA), 772
- Library Journal*, 610, 808
- Library Mosaics*, 678
- Library products and services, in marketing terms, 22
- Library Resources & Technical Services*, 790–791
- Library science journals change in content, 790–791
 effect on structure, 788 effect on users' expectations, 788, 792–793
- Library science v. information science, 673–679
- Library services for distance learners, 53–54
- Library support services, on-campus v. remote site, 36–37
- LITA (Library Information and Technology Association), 772
- literary canon, assaults on, 615–616
 “Literature Attached to Charts,” 79
- Mapping information, 237–254 constructing paradoxical spaces, 241–242 in operation, 246–251 quality of paradoxical spaces, 242–246
- Maps cognitive, 360–363 collaborative, 365 construction, 363
 as cultural artifacts, 367 encoding, 360, 363–364 literal, 3, 372
 routine becomes method, 352
- Marketing library services, 3, 21–49
- Market segments, 30–31
- Martin, Linnea S., 344, 375–394
- Mason, J. Alden (collection of Puerto Rican folklore), 529, 534–540 African influence, 546 criticism of, 539
 folktale types, list of, 543 methodology of study, 534–540 oral forms, 534–538 roles played by Juan Bobo, 540–541 Spanish migration, 541
 summary of collection on “Porto Rican” folklore, 535

- wax recordings, 536-538
- Massey-Burzio, Virginia, 608, 620-639
- Material, types, 341
- Material lore, 341, 344, 399, 417. See also Customary/ritual lore; Verbal lore approaches to study, 418-419 and corporate policies, 448-449 and individual resources, 453-458
 office design, 449-453
 in school environments, 419-420
 as symbols of control, 458-463
 as symbols of status, 459
 in virtual environments, 430-431
 in workplace environments, 444-469
- Material lore in office environments. See Material lore in workplace environments
- Material lore in workplace environments corporate policies, 448-449 individual resources, 453-458
 as symbols of control, 458-463
 as symbols of status, 459
- Medical Library Association (MLA), 349-351, 354
- MEDLINE®, 82
- MEDNET, 82
- MEDWEB, 84
- Menon, Vanaja, 3-4, 42-64
- Mental health classification biomedical model, 318-319 hermeneutic/intuitive/evaluative model, 319
- Merkel, Cecelia, 344, 417-438
- Millson-Martula, Christopher, 3-4, 42-64
- MLA (Medical Library Association), 349-351, 354. See also MLA Oral History Project
- MLA Oral History Project, 350, 354
- Myth
 definition, 485-487 history during WW II, 489-490 and human behavior, 489 and the status quo, 490-491
 as structure, 448
- NAILDD Project, 145-146
- Narrative, types, 341
- Narrative lore, 341
- Narratives, written v. oral, 395
- National Information Infrastructure (NII), 775
- National Library of Medicine (NLM), 79, 81-83, 86
- National Library of Medicine (NLM), grant, 353
- National Science Foundation (NSF), 775
- National Symposium on Circuit Librar-ians and Shared Services, 370
- NCATE (National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education), 677
- Neeley, Lynn, 4, 65-74
- Neumann, Laura J., 439-469
- Nevada, University of, study, 640-668
- Newberry Library, 380-384
- New England Association of Schools and Colleges, 784
- Niemi, John A., 4, 65-74
- NII (National Information Infrastructure), 775
- NLM (National Library of Medicine),
 79, 81-83, 86, 353
- North American Interlibrary Loan and Document Delivery (NAILDD)
 Project, 145-146
- NSF (National Science Foundation), 775
- Nursing Times*, 371
- Observational fieldwork, 371
- OCLC's WorldCat. See WorldCat
- Office design corridor, 449-450
 open office, 450-452
- OhioLink, 702, 706
- Olson, Hope A., 187, 233-254
- OPACs (Online Public Access Catalogs) direct access, 2 problems, 48-49
- Oral history
 as it benefits women, 355
 mapping, 349, 357
- Oral history interview of Jean Antes (Pelley), methodology, 351
- Oral history interviews, 355 constraints, 357
 dialogic texts, 356
 part of culture, 356
- Orality v. literacy, 401
- Oral narratives into printed text, 550

- Orphans
- characteristics (folkloristic), 558–559, 573
 - different treatment in folklore and children's literature, 568–569, 572
 - reactions to, 559
- Orphans in children's literature, 567–573
- characters, 568–569
 - helpers, 569–570
 - mistreatment, 570–571
 - nonpunishment of those who oppose orphans, 572–573
 - obstacles, 571
 - rewards, 572
 - supernatural help, 570
 - surmounting obstacles, 571–572
 - v.* orphans in folklore
- Orphans in folklore
- characters, 561–562
 - fifty folk tales, list of, 574, 575
 - gender and plot elements, 561, 576
 - helpers, 561–562
 - methodology for study, 559–560
 - mistreatment, 562
 - obstacles, 563–564
 - punishment of those who oppose orphans, 566
 - quests, 563–564
 - recurring patterns, 559
 - rewards, 565
 - supernatural help, 564, 565
 - surmounting obstacles, 564–565
- Outsourcing, 172, 175–177
- Oxford Test Archive, 621
- Paradoxical spaces. See Classification design
- Paterson, Brian, 4–5, 91–116
- Pelley, Jean Antes, 349–374
- Perseus (project), 621
- Personal narrative
- ability to evoke other memories, 412
 - as folk object, 395–396, 400–402, 412
- Peters, Thomas A., 3, 7–20
- Place, sense of, 403, 410–412
- Postmodernism, 616–618
- Powell, Kevin, 344, 473–484
- Prece, Barbara G., 5, 144–157
- PREMEDLINE®, 85
- Preparation of electronic texts. See also UNISA Library's Electronic Text Centre
- publishing, 109
 - purchasing, 108–109
 - scanning
 - text encoding
 - training for text encoding, 109–110
- Primary source material, 372
- Print journals, partial list of, 747
- Print revolution, 614
- PubMed®, 85
- Puerto Rican folklore, 344, 529–556
- cultural identity, 529–531
 - and the educational system, 531–534
 - influences, 531, 551
 - literacy, 533
 - motifs, 541–546
 - name motifs, 544–545
 - performance art, 534, 536, 540, 552
 - Spanish-English rivalry, 532
 - tale types, 541–546
 - transnational culture, 551
- Racial, Ethnic and Sexual Composition in Academic and Public Libraries*, 679
- Reference service in digital libraries, 117–141
- challenges for service models, 138–141
 - content analysis, 131
 - electronic request forms, 130, 137
 - e-mail, 128–135
 - e-mail limitations, 129–131, 137–138
 - e-mail reference services, 133–135
 - evaluation of suggested model, 138–141
 - human interactions, 119–123
 - interview strategies, 129–130
 - multi-media nature, 210
 - reference interview, 130
 - request forms, 130, 137
 - "See you See a Librarian" project, 124–125
 - suggested model, 135–138
 - survey of existing services, 123–128
 - use expectations, 209–210
 - videoconferencing, 124–129, 135–137
- Remote access. See Accessibility of remote information

- Remote learners. See Distance learners
- Remote learning. See Distance learning
- Remote nonlibrary customers, 47-48
- Remote reference. See Reference service in digital libraries
- Remote users. See also Distance learners; Evaluation of remote services behavioral traits, 11-14
 demographics, 50, 53-54 and library services, 53-54
 needs, 48-49, 54, 56-61
 reliance on computerized library services, 7
 student expectations, 58-59 support service, 2, 16, 48-49, 69, 71, 86 understanding use, 19-20 use of information, 16 users expectations, 43-46, 69-70
v. on-site users, 161
- Resources for adult distance learners, 71-73
- Retreats. See also Focus groups; Surveys changes in attitude toward technology, 706 changes in focus, 705-707 forum for all staff, 705-707 purposes, 700, 709 as response to change, 699-710
 staff evaluation, 704
 strategic planning, 700, 701, 705-707 topics, 701-705, 707, 708-709
- Revolution in the humanities, 612 in learning and education, 612
- Riggs, Donald E., 609, 788-795
- Ritual lore. See Customary/ritual lore
- Rogers, Everett M., 642-644
- Rosch, Eleanor, 256
- Rothenberg, Jeff, 804
- Rural circuit librarians' information systems, 349-374
- Saunders, Laverna M., 609, 771-787
- Scholarly communication, 38-39
- Secret Garden, The* (analysis of), 558, 567-573
- "See You See A Librarian" project. See Reference service in digital libraries
- Self, Phyllis C., 4, 75-90
- Services for remote users, 4, 78-84. See also Health science information services
- Sloan, Bernie, 5, 117-143, 344, 395-413
- Sloan, Peg analysis of written narratives, 396, 402-405, 410-412 family Folklore, 404 family Outsider, 404 feminist perspective, 406, 407, 409-410 focus on relationships, 409 Immigrants' Child Syndrome, 402-403 interview, text, 406-410 interview of, 396, 405-406, 413 ritual/tradition/holiday, 404 sense of a strong central character, 410-412 sense of family history, 410-412 sense of place, 403, 410-412 specific people/characters, 404 themes of written narratives, 402-405 transition, 404
- Snyman, Dorette, 4-5, 91-116
- Social constructs
 bio-politics vs. bio-power, 196-197 and HIV/AIDS, 191-201 marginalized populations, 187-200 reality construction, 195-196 role of stigma, 200-201
- Social invariants. See Change; Information society
- Software design, 473-484
- Source notes, 546
- Southern Illinois University, 144-157.
See also Interlibrary loan (patron-initiated)
- Space, study of approaches, 418-419
 as environs people inhabit, 434-436 as membership in a community, 434-436
 in school environments, 419-429
 in virtual environments, 429-430, 439, 447, 464, 485-486
- Spasser, Mark A., 188, 313-337
- Spectrum Initiative, 676
- Star, Susan Leigh, 185-189, 218-232
- Starkweather, Wendy M., 608-609, 640-668

- Stewart, George R., 606
- Strategic planning, 701–702, 705–707
- Structuration theory, 313, 316–318, 329–335
 criticisms, 316–318
 and The Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders, 318–324 failure, 331–332
 implications for classification research, 329–331
- Subject access alternatives, 212–213
Anglo American Cataloging Rules, II, 210 cataloging, 210–212
 comparison of Web and traditional cataloging of Escape Velocity, 213–215 comparison of Yahoo! and traditional cataloging, 211–212 Library of Congress, 213–214 recommendations, 215–216 reference services, 209–210 shortcomings, 212–213
 Web identifications, 214–215
- Support services, 2, 16, 48–49, 69, 71, 86
- Support staff, and technology, 711–745 changes from study 10 years before, 711–745 educational background, 713–714 impact on health, 732–734 involvement in decision-making, 730–732 library work experience, 714–715 management of automation, 734–736 methodology of survey, 712–713 personal reactions to technology use, 716–719 personnel change, 727–730 philosophical or social implications, 736–737 training methods, 719–722 use of the Internet, 719 work performance, 722–727
- Survey of support staff, 712–713
- Surveys. See also Focus groups; Retreats of scholarly use of Internet-based electronic resources, 746–770 of staff perceptions of technology, 711–745
- Sutherland, Zena. See Children and Books: a comparison of editions
- SWEDE-L listserv, 693–696. See also WALDEN listserv
- Synchronous and asynchronous services, 16
- Technical support, 48–49, 69, 71, 86
- Technology application in libraries, 789–790 archival issues, 796–805 barrier to information, 629–631 dehumanization, 806–809
 evaluating change, 793
 facilitator of information gathering, 629–631, 654 higher education faculty, 640–668 humanities faculty, 620–639 impact on research, 640, 650–651 library support staff, 711–745 organizational change, 791–792
- Technology Acceptance Model, 642
- Technology and humans, 606–608
- Telecommuting, 439, 447, 464, 485–486
- Text Encoding Initiative, 621
- The Electronic Library*, 788
- Theoretical models, 642
- Theory of Planned Behavior, 642
- Theory of Reasoned Action, 642
- The Secret Garden*, analyzed as orphan story, 567–573
- Thompson, Lisa, 4–5, 91–116
- Tidline, Tonyia J., 344, 485–506
- Tobias, Jennifer, 187, 209–217
- Total Quality Management (TQM), 699
- TQM (Total Quality Management), 699
- Traditional cataloging vs. Web-based description, 209–217
- Tuchman, Barbara, 605
- UMLS (Unified Medical Language System), 203–205
- Unified Medical Language System (UMLS), 203–205
- UNISA Library's commercial databases, 111–115 content investigations, 113 existing network, 112 marketing efforts, 114 options available, 112–113
 problems, 115
 training for, 114–115

- trials, 114
- UNISA Library's current awareness service, 102-104
- UNISA Library's Electronic Text Centre
 - benefits, 107-108
 - evaluation of search engine, 110
 - function, 108-109
 - need statement, 107
 - pilot project, 110
 - preparation of texts, 108-110
 - problems encountered, 110-111
 - Text Encoding Initiative (TEI), 109-110
 - UNISA Library's home page maintenance, 106-107
 - planning, 104-105
 - presentation of information, 106
 - selection of content, 105
- UNISA Library's Library Skills Training Program
 - advanced library skills, 96-97
 - background, 95
 - basic library skills, 96
 - categories of users, 95-96
 - elementary workbook, 95-98
 - elementary research skills, 97
 - partnerships with faculty, 5
 - Research Information Skills, 98-99
 - team-based approach, 5
 - tutorials, 4
- UNISA Library's Web Information Services Team, 93-95
- UNISA Library's Work Group on Internet Course Development (WICD), 100-102
- UNISA (University of South Africa), 5
- United Technologies Information Network, 158-171
 - effects of new model on staff, 166-167
 - history, 158
 - I-Net Team, 160, 164-167
 - licensing issues, 164-165
 - maintenance, 163
 - new model of information delivery, 160-161
 - security, 164-165
 - technical issues, 163-164, 165
 - trouble-shooting, 163
 - user education, 168
 - user response, 168-170
 - variety of services, 161-163
- University of South Africa (UNISA), 5
- Use studies, 641-642
 - determinants of use, 642
 - factors influencing use, 641-642
- Value-based performance, 35-36
- Value chain, implications for academic libraries, 33-36
- Van Heerden, Louise, 4-5. 91-116
- Vendor partnerships, 175-177
- Venn diagrams, 235-237
- Verbal lore, 344, 417. See also Customary/ritual lore; Material lore on college campuses, 427-429 in virtual environments, 431-433 in workplace environments, 444, 446, 461
- "Vermilion border," 284-287. See also International Classification of Diseases
- Vernacular words and processes, 213-215, 222
- Vernacular words and processes vs. controlled vocabulary, 204-205
- Video-conferencing distance education (VTDW). See Reference service in digital libraries
- Virtual environments
 - customary/ritual lore, 433-434
 - material lore, 430-431
 - verbal lore, 431-433
- Virtual library, the, 771-787
 - access, democratization of, 774-776
 - comfort of staff, 783
 - decision-making of staff, 786
 - definition, 772
 - evaluation, 784-785
 - health of staff, 781-783
 - human concerns, 776-778
 - Internet browsers, 775-776
 - Internet service providers, 775-776
 - national networks, 774-775
 - organizational change, 778-781
 - role of early adopters of technology, 785-786
 - role of supervisors, 785
 - staff abilities, 779-780
 - telecommuting, 780
 - traditional library mission, 771
 - training, 779-780
 - use of listservs, 780
 - users' expectations, 773-774
- Vorster, Marza, 4-5, 91-116

- WALDEN listserv, 686–693. See also
 - SWEDE-L listserv
 - history, 689
 - maintenance, 689–690
 - purpose, 691
 - uses of, 691–692
- Wallin, Camille Clark, 609, 640–668
- Watkins, Ansie, 4–5, 91–116
- Waugh, Jessica L., 4, 75–90
- Web information services at UNISA Library, 91–116
- WICD (UNISA's Library Work Group on Internet Course Development), 100–102
- Wolpert, Ann, 3, 21–41
- "Women Director Career Factors One-Minute Survey," 692
- Work culture, 357
- Work environment viewed as space, 439–466
- Working at home, 439, 447, 464, 485–486
- Workplace environments, 439–466
 - conference style classroom, 426
 - contrasting work spaces, 460
 - corporate control, 459–463
 - display of personal space, 453, 455, 458
 - informal learning space, 427
 - lecture hall, 426
 - office design, 424, 449–453, 424
- Workways as systems, 350, 363
- WorldCat, 15
- Wright, Barbara A., 4, 75–90

- Zeidberg, David S., 609, 796–805
- Zhang, Sha Li, 609, 788–795
- Zhang, Yin, 609, 746–770

COMING IN 1999

Clinic on Library Applications of Data Processing
1998 proceedings

Successes and Failures of Digital Libraries

Edited by Michael Twidale and Susan Harum

PAST PROCEEDINGS ARE ALSO AVAILABLE:

1997 Proceedings

Visualizing Subject Access for

21st Century Information Resources

Edited by Pauline Atherton Cochrane and Eric H. Johnson

$30.00*

1996 Proceedings

Digital Image Access & Retrieval

Edited by P. Bryan Heidorn and Beth Sandore

$30.00*

1995 Proceedings

Geographic Information Systems and Libraries:

Patrons, Maps, and Spatial Information

Edited by Linda C. Smith and Myke Gluck

$30.00*

Send orders to: GSLIS Publications Office, Room 313, 501 E. Daniel Street, Champaign, IL 61820. Prepayment required; Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and checks (payable to the University of Illinois) accepted.

Information regarding other publications can be obtained by writing to the above address or can be accessed at our Web site:

<http://edfu.lis.uiuc.edu/puboff>

*Price does NOT include shipping. Within the United States, the shipping cost is $3 for the first book, $1 for each additional book in the same order. Outside of the United States, the shipping cost is $5 for the first book, $1.50 for each additional book in the same order. (We ship Fourth Class Library Rate.)