Academic Integrity
In accordance with the Schoolcraft College Student Code of Conduct, students are prohibited from engaging or participating in acts of dishonesty, including but not limited to cheating, plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty. The complete Student Code of Conduct is available in the catalog and at: http://www.schoolcraft.edu/academics/policies/conduct.

Any academic dishonesty associated with this course may result in the grade of zero for the assignment or exam and may lead to further disciplinary action.

Cheating
Includes but is not limited to: assistance with tests, quizzes, exams; unauthorized sources when writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems or completing other assignments; taking/receiving academic material (including tests) belonging to a faculty or staff member without permission.

Plagiarism
Includes but is not limited to: the use of published or unpublished work of someone else without full citation.
Plagiarism also includes selling/purchasing papers or other academic material. In other words, it is stealing (whether knowingly or unknowingly) another’s work and passing it off as your own.

Forms of plagiarism include direct quotations, paraphrasing (restatement of text without changing the meaning and without giving attribution) and aggregation of materials (compilation and rearrangement of materials gathered from several sources).

Additional Services

The Learning Assistance Center (LAC) may have tutors for this course.

Livonia LAC: (734) 462-4436; Bradner Library, Room 119
Radcliff LAC: (734) 462-4400, ext. 6021; Radcliff Center, RC 120

There are general (open) computer labs for student use both at Livonia and Radcliff. In Livonia, MC 010 (lower level of the McDowell Center) is open daily and on weekends with hours posted in the lab. At Radcliff, RC 140 will have weekly hours posted outside the room. Call (734) 462-4400, ext. 5529 for hours at both campuses. Lab technicians are available in MC 010 to help you with hardware or system problems in the labs. They are not tutors for various software packages. Food and drink are not allowed in any computer labs. Additional policies may be posted in the computer labs.

Class Cancellation

Classes canceled will be listed on the Schoolcraft web page. Students can visit http://www.schoolcraft.edu/cancellationsandclosings for more information.

For College closings due to weather or other emergencies, listen to major area radio or TV stations for updates.

Student Responsibilities
As a Schoolcraft College student (whether online, on campus, or at an off campus educational site), you are expected to:

1. Check your Schoolcraft email, Blackboard (if applicable) and the College website for:
   - Announcements
   - Class Cancellations
   - Assignments
   - Other pertinent information
Refer to the Schoolcraft Email User Guide, found on the Schoolcraft website for assistance in setting up your Schoolcraft email.

2. Seek technical assistance, should the need arise, regarding elements needed to complete your coursework including but not limited to SCmail, Blackboard, publisher resources, etc.

3. Use appropriate communications and proper Netiquette between you and the instructor, supervisor, and/or classmates.

4. Complete all course requirements, assignments, reflections, etc. This includes but is not limited to: being responsible for reading the textbook/course materials and not relying on the instructor presenting every detail.

5. Follow the College’s policies regarding student conduct, academic integrity, and academic dishonesty.

6. Budget your time to keep up with the course work. At least two hours of study time outside of class for each hour the class meets is recommended.

7. Check the Schoolcraft College Registration Information web page for important institutional dates (e.g. registration, withdrawal, etc.).

8. Demonstrate respect and courtesy to others whether in the classroom, online, or off-site.

9. Identify yourself and the class you are referring to when contacting your instructor or supervisor via email, by phone, or in person. In addition, show the attempted work when seeking help in completing an assignment.

10. Inform your instructor or supervisor of any situations or health conditions that might create an emergency within the learning environment.

11. Discuss, in advance, any needs you may have for test taking or other accommodations. The instructor must have received notification from Disability Support Services.

12. Adhere to the instructor’s classroom policies regarding the usage of any digital device (e.g. cell phone, tablet, etc.) during class.

13. Refrain from all unauthorized recording of any instructor, classmate, etc. without prior permission.

Success in Your Course and Program of Study

Schoolcraft College is dedicated to your success in achieving your goals.

The grade that you earn in this course may impact your ability to progress in future courses or in your program. Students who do not fulfill the minimum requirements set by this course and receive a grade lower than the minimum to progress, or those who do not officially withdraw from this course by the withdrawal deadline and receive a final grade of 0.0, may have their ability to obtain financial aid impacted. This may include future denial of financial aid or the requirement to return funds that have been disbursed.

Grading Rationale

Students must complete a minimum of one assessment that is a project or paper or presentation that analyzes critical research, theories, social problems, or institutions that defines an individual's role in civic and global settings.
A minimum of two additional assessments will be added by the instructor. The exact type of assessments (e.g., quizzes, exams, final, paper, presentation etc.) will be at the discretion of the instructor.

Determination of Final Grade

EXAMPLE:
