Many aquatic plants grown in water gardens can invade and cause harm to our lakes, rivers and streams. They can also be costly to eradicate or control. Please help prevent their introduction and spread by growing non-invasive or regionally native plants.

For more non-invasive alternatives and other information on preventing the spread of invaders, do water gardening visit: www.IsakelM.org/poster