Glacial ice margins in Illinois during the middle to late Pleistocene.

Figure M2 Location of the Keyesport Quadrangle, outlined in yellow within the Kaskaskia Basin. The location of Figure M2 is outlined in black. Areas in red indicate approximate extent of ice. Areas in gray indicate glaciers. The key indicates the path of various glacial drainage directions and location of the Illinois River drainage near Keyesport.